

SCREENS

For Every Purpose
Phones: Wilmette 2508-3134
NORTH SHORE SCREEN COMPANY
Office & Factory, Schiller Ave., WILMETTE

PATRONIZE OUR ADVERTISERS

WILMETTE 145

The Solution to Household Cleaning

A FEW words on the telephone or to Bill the Washington Laundry Man and the things that make household cleaning a task* are taken out of your way and off your mind—and returned fresh and clean ready to use or put away.

*What to Send to Us

Blankets pillows curtains rugs slipcovers bed spreads anything you wish laundered.

The Washington Laundry

700-704 Washington Street EVANSTON, ILL.
Phone Wilmette 145

P. A. for May Ball

Photo by Toloff

Miss Josephine Hedges Ewalt, a senior in the Medill School of Journalism, Northwestern university, is co-publicity chairman for the Second Annual May ball, at the Drake hotel, May 6, for the benefit of the Chicago cathedral fund. The Episcopal Young People's association of the diocese is sponsoring the ball.

Evanston Garden Market Held Saturday, May 14

The Garden market conducted annually by the Evanston Garden club, will be held all day Saturday, May 14, in Raymond Park, Evanston. The committee chairmen for the market are: Mrs. Sidney S. Porter, accessories; Mrs. William C. Evans, bird houses and bird baths; Mrs. Charles G. Rhodes, donations booth; Mrs. Frank Parker Davis, grounds committee; Mrs. Robert L. Scott, hospital exhibit (occupational therapy work); Mrs. John H. S. Lee, cafeteria luncheon; Mrs. William T. Reeves, garden posters done by the art class of the High school and the Roycemore Upper school; Mrs. Frank Warner Kingsley, publicity; Mrs. William H. Colvin, vegetable booth; Mrs. Irwin Rew and Mrs. Gabriel F. Slaughter, applications committee. Florists are growing special plants for the market this year, it is announced.

The Kenilworth club is having its last luncheon and bridge of its season, today.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Knoop, 221 Warwick road, returned to their home in Kenilworth, April 19, from California, where they had been for the past two months.

Mrs. C. G. Burnham, 536 Roslyn road, Kenilworth returned to her home Monday after spending the week-end in Princeton with her sons, James and David.

Kitchenette Apartments

NOW is the time to engage one of these bright, cheery apartments, one or two rooms, where you enjoy home comforts without home cares. Picture the restfulness, the pleasure of having others do all the work, the freedom from servant worries, the happiness of new quarters and new environment.

An early selection is advisable. Visit us any time or telephone University 8000.

Quiet - - Exclusive - - Homelike

Orrington Avenue, just south of Church Street