Homecoming at Arden Shore Sunday, May 1

May day is Homecoming day at Arden Shore. The many boys who have passed through their period of encampment come back at this time to spend the day with the fifty members of the present winter camp. It is a time, too, when friends of Arden Shore are especially invited to go to the camp to see for themselves what is being accomplished. A program will be given in the afternoon at 3, and later tea will be served to visitors.

A group of Winnetkans, Mrs. Hubert Howard, Mrs. Marcus Richards, Mrs. Norman W. Harris, Mrs. Warren Agry, Mrs. George Leach, Mrs. Stephen Birch, and Mrs. Samuel Smart, are contributing cakes for the tea tomorrow.

For the past five or six years groups of about fifty boys each season, between the ages of 14 and 17, undernourished and underweight, have been sent out by the Chicago board of education for care at Arden Shore, where, under rigid diet and training, they have been nursed back to health. The board has sent out teachers so that they could keep up with their school work while regaining their strength. When they are in good physical condition they obtain working certificates, and the Arden Shore association helps them find fitting employment.

Society for Shut-Ins to Sell Wares in Glencoe

The Vocational Society for Shut-Ins, East Walton place, Chicago, is to conduct an all-day sale in Glencoe May 10, from 10 until 5. Mrs. William H. Stanley Black, 171 Franklin road, will open her home on that date for the sale and tea. These sales have been held all along the north shore for many years, but this is the first one in Glencoe.

These instructors utilize the talents of the shut-ins in a practical way, making it possible for them to put on the market many beautiful and saleable articles. In fact this shop has become quite famous for some of its products, among which are attractive and artistic hooked rugs, pillows, luncheon sets, and many other moderately priced articles.
