

LEE Says:

WHENEVER I get
HOLD of a good thing
I ALWAYS
LIKE to let my
FRIENDS in on it—
WHICH is what the
SALESMAN told me
WHEN I bought his
OIL stock one time!

BUT I've got a candy
PROPOSITION for MOTHERS' Day this
YEAR that's a
HUMDINGER—a 2½
POUND box of
TREBOR'S assorted
CHOCOLATES for the
SMALL sum of $1.00.

Special
Mothers' Day
Candy
Liggett's
Whitman's
Ranfts'
Trebtor's

IT'S so good that I
KNOW you'd be sore
AT me if I didn't
LET you know about
IT—hence this ad.

THE only string
ATTACHED to the offer
IS that you can't
BUY more than two
BOXES at a time!

AND it's wonderful
CANDY—good enough for
THE Missus and cheap
ENOUGH for the kids.

MOTHERS Day
IS Sunday—
BETTER hurry!

Rev. C. Stanley Vaughan to Speak on India Sunday

Members and friends of Winnetka Congregational church will be interested to hear one who has been associated with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wolsted in the work at Madura, India. Rev. C. Stanley Vaughan who is in this country on furlough will speak at the evening service of the Winnetka Congregational church, May 8 at 8 o'clock. This is the first opportunity Winnetka has had to hear one of the members of the Madura Missions speak since Mr. and Mrs. Wolsted left for India five years ago.

Rev. James Austin Richards will preach in the morning at 11 o'clock. His sermon topic will be, "Divine Arithmetic."

Cash and Carry Society to Hold Sale Wednesday

The Cash and Carry Food sale committee has acceded to the many demands for its home cooked foods at next week's Woman's Society May Birthday luncheon, and will be there with a large variety of breads, pies, cookies, doughnuts, cake, candy, and nuts. The sale will be held just before and following the luncheon. There will also be a sale in the lobby of gifts of all kinds, such as linens, bric-a-brac, hand-made handkerchiefs, etc. Be sure to remember the date—Wednesday, May 11.

Quincy Woman Hurt When Cars Collide Near High School

Mrs. E. V. Skinner, of 1026 N. 24th street, Quincy, Ill., was seriously injured in an automobile accident last Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock on Winnetka avenue at Essex road. Mr. and Mrs. Skinner, are stopping temporarily at the Delmar hotel in Chicago. They were driving through Winnetka, and in making a turn at the street intersection, Mr. Skinner extended his hand as a signal to an approaching car driven by Miss Gordon, a daughter of Henry C. Gordon, of 722 Greenleaf avenue, Wilmette.

The signal, apparently was unheeded, the Gordon car crashing into the rear of the Skinner machine, and swerving from the impact hit a near-by tennis court post. Mrs. Skinner sustained two deep gashes in her head and it was feared she had suffered a skull fracture. She was removed to the Evanston hospital. The occupants of the Gordon car and Mr. Skinner escaped injury. The accident was reported by Sergeant Ed Cummings and Motorcycle Officer Rhys Fuidge.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ilg of 845 Pine street, Winnetka, announce the birth of a daughter Thursday morning at Grant hospital, Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Crawford will move from their home at 848 Ash street to 278 Linden avenue about the middle of the month.
