Scouts Plan Field Day
 May 21 at Cabin Home

Word comes from headquarters of the North Shore Area Boy Scout Council, with headquarters at 16 N. Sheridan road, Highland Park, that the outdoor Field Day of the Scouting year will be held on Saturday afternoon, May 21. The Scouts from the thirty-one troops of the north shore, some 700 of them, will compete in various Scoutcraft events.

The events will include a water-boiling contest, competition in semaphore and wig wag; fire by friction, fire by flint and steel, a treasure hunt, the Scouts' pace, knot-tying contest, bugling contest.

Noted Violinist to Give Lessons Here This Summer

Announcement has just been made that Milan Lusk, violinist, will teach during the entire summer at his residence studio, 810 Michigan avenue, Wilmette. Arrangements for the summer term are now being made. Mr. Lusk teaches the famous Sevcik method.

Last Saturday at a students' recital in Winnetka, Vernor Laskey, a pupil of Milan Lusk, played effectively a Polka by Franklin, with Mrs. J. D. Laskey at the piano.

Mrs. Halsey White, her son, Hugh, and niece, Miss Ruth Gibson, have returned to their home at 681 Lincoln avenue, after having passed the winter at the Orrington hotel in Evanston.

Medical School Receives Valuable Halstead Books

Mrs. Albert E. Halstead of Chicago, has donated to the medical library of Northwestern university, the entire collection of volumes on surgery of the late Dr. Halstead. This collection numbers about 3,000 volumes and includes practically complete sets of the important American, German and French surgical periodicals. Among these may be mentioned the Langenbeck Archiv, Deutsche Zeitschrift, the Annals of Surgery and many others. The Halstead collection will be installed in one of the seminar rooms adjoining the main reading room of the Archibald Church Memorial library and will be known as "The Albert Edward Halstead Surgical library."

Dr. Halstead was graduated from Northwestern university Medical school with the class of 1890, was a profound student of the principles of surgery, and able clinician, a member of the American Surgical association, the American college of Surgeons, and many other scientific and surgical societies. His death occurred on December 6, 1926, as a result of coronary thrombosis.

Dr. Halstead's library is an exceedingly important addition to the medical library, according to Dean Irving S. Cutter.

W. G. Forrest of 485 Willow street is recovering rapidly at his home. He returned Tuesday after having been at the Presbyterian hospital for a week.
