

Candlelight Will Mark Beginning of N.U. Commencement

Northwestern university candles will shine the country over Sunday evening, May 16, and signal the return of commencement week at the university in Evanston.

Following the custom of years, groups of alumni the country over, unable to reach the campus for the impressive candle-lighting services of that evening, will meet in various places and revere the tradition. Purple candles or white candles tied with bows of purple will flicker everywhere and Northwestern songs will be sung and the customary ritual observed as they burn.

The tentative program of commencement activities in Evanston to follow this official opening, has been announced as follows:

New Choral Group Chooses Officers; Invites Members

Music lovers on the north shore will be interested to learn that a choral society for mixed voices has recently been formed in Kenilworth. The group has been meeting on Tuesday evenings at the home of Mrs. E. W. Marshall at 140 Kenilworth avenue, and at the meeting this week officers were elected as follows: Mrs. Charles D. Howe, president; Mrs. A. B. Spach, vice-president; Mrs. Earl C. Moss, secretary-treasurer. A committee, with Miss Barbara Irwin as chairman, has been appointed to draw up by-laws and select a name for the society.

Rehearsals have been held under the direction of Francis F. Moore, who has been the organist of the First Presbyterian church in Chicago for the past thirty years, and is at present living at the Kenilworth Inn. The members have enjoyed their gatherings this winter and will be glad to hear of anyone interested in singing, particularly male voices.

JOHANNA MEETING THURSDAY

The last regular meeting of North Shore Johanna will be held on Thursday, May 12, at the home of Mrs. L. M. Hamburger at 502 Willow road, Winnetka. The meeting will begin at 12 noon when luncheon will be served. Mrs. Miles L. Friedman and Mrs. M. Shandor Zinner will be the assisting hostesses.
