

HUBBARD WOODS HAS NEIGHBORHOOD SOCIAL

Good-will Party Sponsored by Improvement Association Achieves Popularity

The first social evening ever sponsored by the Hubbard Woods Improvement association was their Bridge and "500" party held in the auditorium of the Hubbard Woods school last Tuesday evening.

The slogan which helped make the party a success was, "Neighborliness." The appeal made by the directors in their sale of tickets was "Come Out and Meet Your Neighbors—the Party is Informal."

As the hour to start playing approached, remarks by those about the tables were heard like these—"There are John and Margaret Jones, we haven't seen them for months," "I had no idea there would be such a crowd."

Erskine Wilder, with Mrs. Norman Copthorne at the piano, led in group singing. Mrs. Stanley Farwell with her group of directors' wives, served refreshments a la hotel Drake, putting the best of caterers to shame.

"Ted Farwell, president of the association, introduced the guests and directors and diplomatically pointed a finger at George Miller, the treasurer, who hung around the door most of the evening to make sure that no one escaped who might want to join the association.

Backed by Merchants

Meanwhile the Rules committee was busy checking up scores. Everyone was anxious for the results and only two or three couples failed to remain. The party was a great success and frequent expressions were heard that there might be many more of them.

The following merchants contributed liberally toward the success of the party:

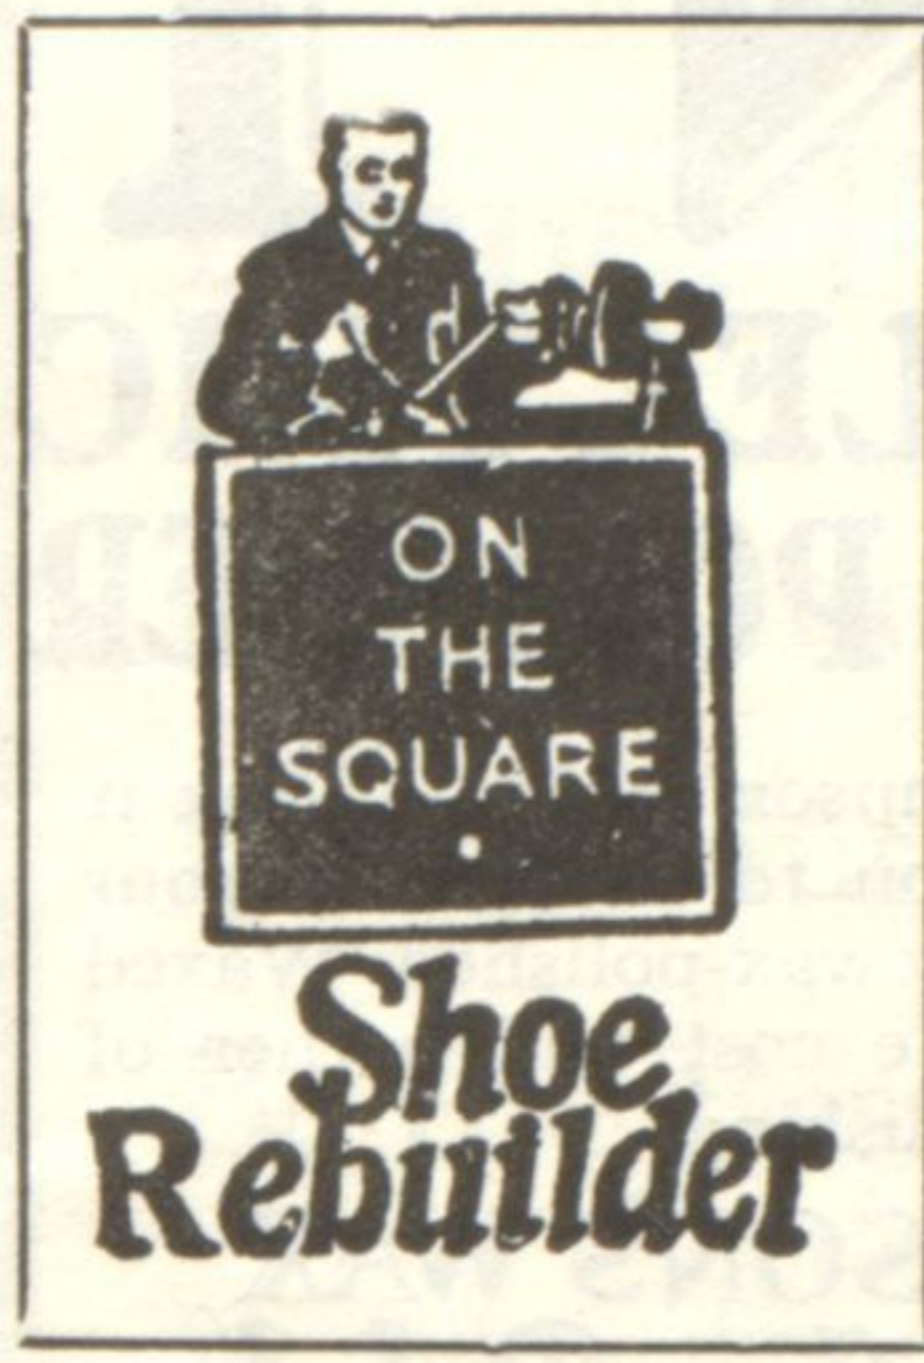

Pauline Shop, Frank A. Reid, A. W. Zengler, Hubbard Woods Garage, A. Vickery, Hubbard Woods Fruit Store, Dean & Brown, Hubbard Woods Coal & Lumber, Electric Shop, Pullom & Regan, Hubbard Woods Pharmacy, Hubbard Woods Shoe Repair Shop, Glenetka Garage, Hubbard Woods Battery Service, Hubbard Woods Grocery, Denni Brothers, G. L. Zick & Co., Hearthstone Tea Shop, North Shore Pharmacy, Mrs. McArthur, Florentine Shop, Peter Pan Shop, Hubbard Woods Bakery, Bert Smale Barker Shop, A. & P. Grocery, George Wood, Vic Kilian, E. Bachechi, North Shore Ice Co., Shell Gas, Hubbard Woods Tire Shop, Electric Shop, Woodland Grocery & Market, Florence Hat Shop, Central Hardware, Dr. H. Lynn, Gift Shop, R. W. Schell, John Odh and National Tea Co.

The Scandinavian Pleasure club will hold its monthly dance at the Odd Fellows' hall in Wilmette tonight. Harold Anderson's orchestra will furnish the music.

Two hundred and fifty members and guests attended the annual members' meeting of the Wilmette Golf club Wednesday night of this week. The event was a stag affair.
