

As Expansion Fills the Valley Skokie Acre-Holders Will Profit

Chicagoans are moving in increasing numbers, to a new-found playground, where life is better, cleaner, safer.

An army of Chicago families is on the march, anxious to leave the city's clamour far behind. They have found the beautiful Skokie valley an ideal place to live and raise children—amid vast stretches of grassy fields, forest land and picturesque sky-lines. The trend is unmistakably northward!

Recent transportation extensions opened this district to commuters. And as the influx increases—values go up. Those who buy acres now, for homes or investment, will realize a profit as did first-comers in this fertile region. They will enjoy here the benefits that draw cultured people to the North Shore—the educational and recreational facilities, the magnificent landscape, the interesting motor roads.

There is still a limited amount of high and well-drained acreage, sharing this new development. Quinlan & Tyson, familiar with every foot of it through years of activity here, can show you the best opportunities, and tell you why they are good. Complete records, long experience and a close-coupled organization enable them to judge values accurately. Their information on Skokie acreage is at your disposal. Call, phone or write.
