

LEE Says:

OVER here on the EAST side of our STORE is a show case THAT we wish could be INSPECTED by every lady IN the Winnetka community— NOT the show case, EXACTLY, either, but THE line of stationery THAT is displayed THEREIN. IT'S an easy thing to SAY that we've got a "QUALITY line of STATIONERY"—that doesn't MEAN a blamed thing— BUT when you see this LINE of Melody Linen STATIONERY and examine THE paper and the snappy SHAPES and sizes and TINTS and grains and the BEAUTIFUL boxes, that WORD "quality" begins to MEAN something. PERSONALLY, we've never SEEN nicer writing material THAN this line includes AND we've been associated WITH stationery for OVER 25 years—and SAY, a box of STATIONERY makes a WONDERFUL gift!

*Special Melody Linen
Stationery in four tints 39c.*

ADAMS

PHARMACY

The Rexall Store

Elm & Linden

WINNETKA 2

Council Approves Plans for Well-Baby Clinic

Mrs. Walter L. Benson, chairman of the health committee, made a report at the meeting of the council Tuesday evening on the matter of establishing a well baby clinic, advising the council that the cost of equipping the clinic would be less than $500. Her recommendation that this service be undertaken by the Health Department was concurred in by the council. Dr. H. A. Orvis stated this week that preparatory plans for the clinic are being worked out and the public will be advised of the same through the WINNETKA TALK, later.

TO DIRECT CELEBRATION

Charles J. Eastman has been appointed chairman of the Fourth of July committee, the appointment having been made by Henry F. Tenney, president of the Village board, at the meeting of that body Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Eugene Ackerman of New Canaan, Conn., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Randolph Buck of 1290 Scott avenue. She is also being entertained by her sister, Mrs. William Ogden Coleman, of 471 Hill road.

Richards' Sermon on Franklin Gains Wide Circulation

The sermon preached by the Rev. James Austin Richards at the Winnetka Congregational church, Sunday, January 16, on "Benjamin Franklin," has been printed in pamphlet form for wide circulation by The Benjamin Franklins, (namesakes of Franklin), Their purpose, as announced, is "to encourage discussion of and increase interest in the great contribution Franklin made to his generation and posterity."

In the foreword, Benjamin Franklin Farber, D. D., of the Fourth Presbyterian church, New York, N. Y., says:

"In his sermon on that great American, Benjamin Franklin, by Dr. Richards, the author has given us an accurate and conscientious review of the life of Franklin, his religion, his religious beliefs and his religious principles. He has kept to the facts and everything in the sermon is historically correct."

E. F. Deacon Leases the Merritt Lum Residence

E. F. Deacon has leased the Merritt Lum residence property at 1014 Dinsmore road, for occupancy June 1, the lease being made through H. D. Hill, of the firm of Hill & Stone, 543 Lincoln avenue. Mr. Deacon is moving his family to Winnetka, from St. Louis. He is associated with the G. W. Dulany Trust, of Chicago. Charles L. Stacy, through Arthur C. Gedge, also of the firm of Hill & Stone, has leased the Samuel H. Greely home- stead at 759 Prospect avenue, which has been until recently occupied by Mrs. Arthur Reebie.

Coming -

Breaking
All Records—
The Greatest Drive Ever!

Baby Spring Lamb

Now, you can get at our market, Genuine 1927 Baby Spring Lamb. There's a certain satisfaction and enjoyment that you get when eating lamb, especially when you know it's genuine . . . and ours surely is.

It has that "eatmore" flavor, for after one helping of this juicy, tender meat, which fairly melts in your mouth, you're bound to call for seconds.

Try it . . . for your Sunday Dinner.

Peters' Market

—Meats of Quality—

734 Elm St.

Phones 920-21-22