Weinstock of 1323 Asbury avenue. Dr. J. W. F. Davies performed the ceremony which was attended by relatives and intimate friends.

Mrs. Earl L. Weinstock attended the bride as matron of honor, and Miss Frances Fox, the groom's sister, as bridesmaid. Earl L. Weinstock acted as best man for Mr. Fox. One of the features of the wedding was in the playing of the wedding march by Earl L. Weinstock, Jr., the bride's young nephew. Little Patricia Weinstock, her niece, attended as flower girl.

A reception followed the ceremony. After a honeymoon trip of several weeks in the East, including Washington, D. C., and New York City, Mr. Fox and his bride will make their home at Rogers Park. They will be at home at 7323 Clayton Court, after July 1.

Group of Boys Spend Week-End on Island Camp

The vanguard of Adventure Islanders, consisting of a group of north shore boys returned recently after spending a week-end on the island. The boys were in charge of Charles A. Kinney, director of the camp. The trip was the first to be taken by different groups of boys before the closing of schools permits a general exodus to the island.

The camp fleet weathered the winter in first class shape, and the boys are impatiently awaiting the day when the winter canvas can be hauled off and they can start getting the fleet in commission.

A new addition to the fleet is a coast guard surf boat bought by Mr. Kinney this spring. The craft has a powerful heavy duty motor, is unsinkable, and will weather any sea, making it an ideal boat for the camp.

An interesting experience of the boys was the discovery on the island of a pair of American bald eagles, apparently preparing to make their nest there. What will happen when the colony of great blue herons arrive from the south to build their nests is a matter of exciting speculation, especially as the herons have been coming to the same location for the past forty or more years. The boys are merely hoping they can be on hand when the meeting takes place.
