

Crown May Queens in Final Program of College Festival

By Critic

Miss Geneva Mangrum of Evansville, Ind., and Miss Kaye Reintges of West Palm Beach, Fla., the two girls receiving the highest number of votes for Queen of the May, were crowned with the dainty pink and white of apple blossoms last week, Miss Mangrum on Wednesday evening, and Miss Reintges on Thursday, at the National Kindergarten and Elementary college, at the conclusion of the spring festival.

Costumes and scenery vied with the artistic conception of movement and music for first place in the opinion of the audience, and the combination of the four made a medley of rare charm which brought delighted laughter and applause from the audience on both occasions.

The old negroes with their high stepping cake-walk, and the pickaninnies with their nimble clogging were the first to "bring down the house," but the Musical Interpretation, with its exquisite peacock coloring, trailing feathers of blues and greens and bronze, its shimmering scarf dance, brought a breathless silence of appreciation of the sheer beauty of the scene.

The Kitchen Awake, with its shiftless Irish maid and its lively scouring powders, spices, brooms, and dust pans and self-satisfied "Whipping Cream" worked up an uproar which was silenced only by the crowing of the cock—and then came the Italian scene with its gay color and song, the exquisite daintiness of Pierrot and Pierrette, the masked ball and the entrance of the guards, attendants and the May Queen, followed by a rush of the players in gay costumes, eager to shower their congratulations on the Queen of their choice.

The audience on the first evening was composed of relatives and friends of the students, and on the second, of a scarcely less appreciative group of alumnae and friends of the college, including the members of the board of trustees and their wives, who attended the play following their quarterly meeting in Harrison hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Vissering, 257 Kenilworth avenue, returned to Kenilworth April 23, from a Mediterranean cruise.

ISSUE SCOUT PAPER

The May issue of "The Talk O' The Troops," local Boy Scout publication, has been distributed this week to the thirty-one Scout troops of the North Shore Area. The current number, devoted particularly to camp and summer hiking news, is six pages and carries an attractive hand-drawn cover.

Congressman Henry Riggs Rathbone, 312 Sheridan road, returned to Kenilworth as soon as Congress closed. Mrs. Rathbone has been sojourning at Palm Beach and is expected home the latter part of this week.

HEAR SOUTHERN PASTOR

The Rev. Edgar Smock, general secretary of the Bishops' council in N. Y., held the service Sunday evening at the Church of the Holy Comforter in place of Rev. Patten who has charge of the work among the negroes in the south. He brought with him twelve southern negro singers who sang negro spirituals in a most remarkable manner.

Mrs. L. Sawyer of 139 Abingdon road, Kenilworth, entertained eight guests at luncheon, Friday, May 13. All of the guests are members of The Cradle club of Evanston.

Coming—

to . . .
The Greatest Drive Ever!

This will serve to remind you that Memorial Day this year falls on a Monday—May 30. That means you will have Saturday, Sunday and Monday to enjoy a wonderful outing. Take advantage of it! Of course the highways will be packed on this first holiday of the season. Why not leave your car in the garage—let someone else do the worrying—take the North Shore Line and enjoy yourself? Hundreds of choice spots in the nearby land of lakes and woods are reached by North Shore Line trains connecting with North Shore Line Motor Coaches. For example: Lake Geneva, Fox Lake District, Lake Villa, Antioch, Volo, McHenry. The cost is so small, the pleasure so great! Ask your North Shore Line ticket agent for information.

Service that makes MILWAUKEE a next door neighbor!

IT WASN'T so many years ago that North Shore towns had less frequent transportation service to Chicago, at many hours of the day, than they now enjoy, all day long, to Milwaukee!

That may seem surprising, but it's true nevertheless. Today, on the North Shore Line, there is service every hour to Milwaukee. Limited trains from here make comfortable connections with fast Milwaukee trains at North Chicago Junction.

No matter what time of day you want to go—morning, afternoon or evening—the same hourly service is available to you. North Shore Line takes you direct to the heart of Milwaukee's business district—Sixth and Sycamore—saving you time and taxi fare.

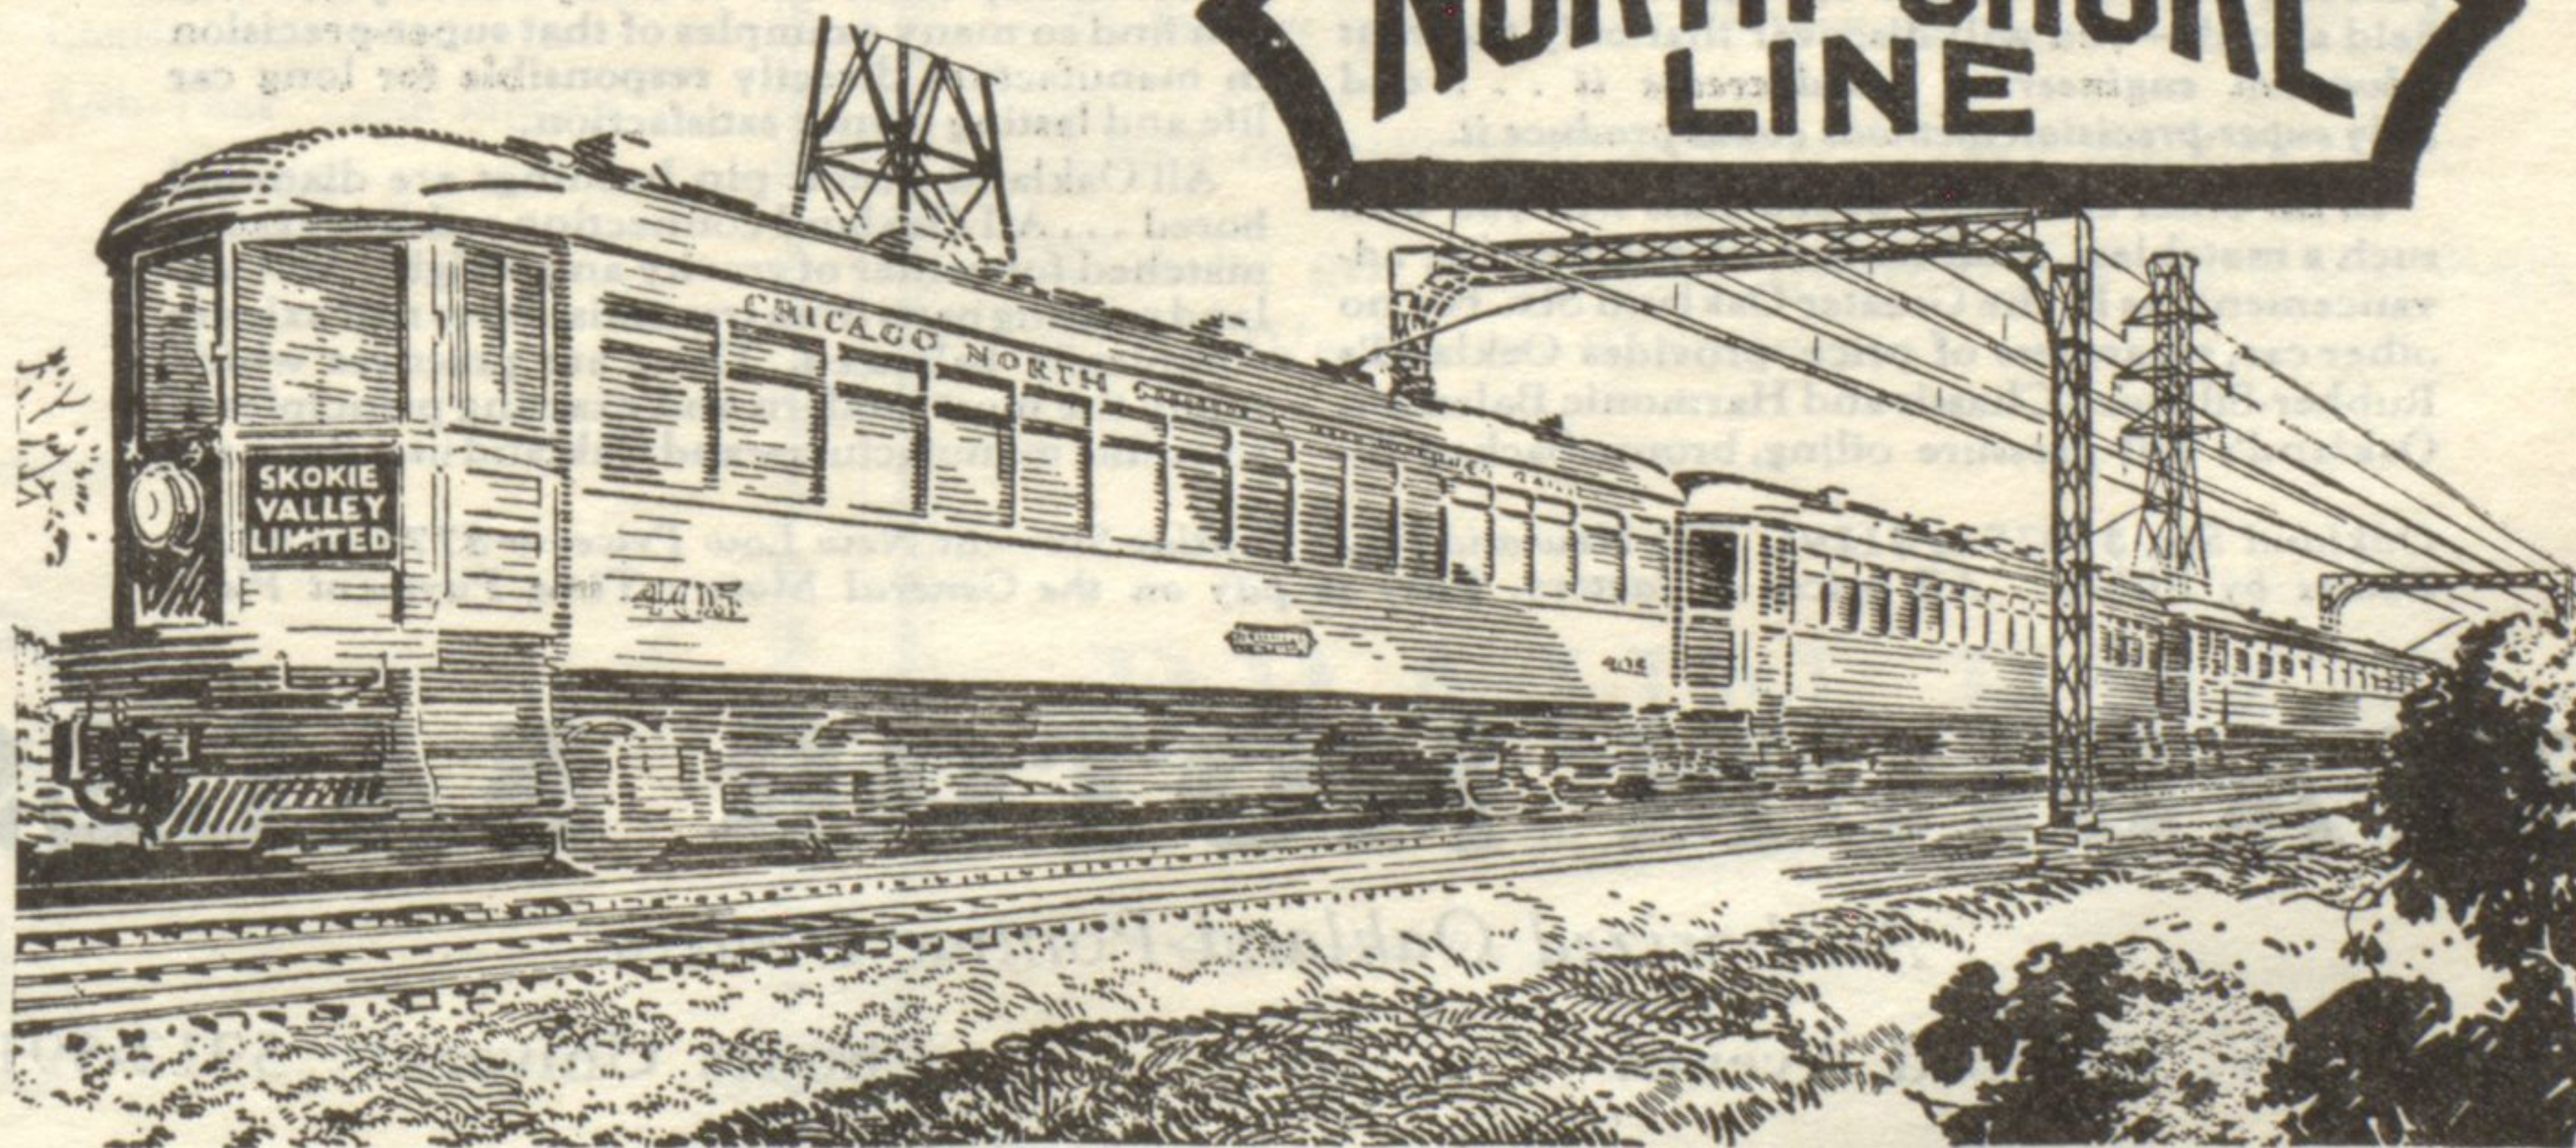

Go this fast, clean, smokeless way. Dining cars at meal times on Milwaukee trains; parlor-observation cars at scheduled hours. All Milwaukee trains stop at Kenosha and Racine.

Those desiring to take Milwaukee trains from Chicago will find our Loop Station (Adams and Wabash) and our North Side Stations (Grand Ave., Wilson Ave., or Howard St.) a real convenience. All Milwaukee trains stop at these stations.

For schedules, fares and other information, inquire at ticket office.
