Red Cross to Give Health Instruction at Lake Lawn, Wis.

In addition to the regular courses in first aid and life saving at the Red Cross Institute, to be held June 16-25 at Lake Lawn, Lake Delavan, Wis., particular emphasis will be given the studies of industrial safety, personal hygiene and sickness prevention.

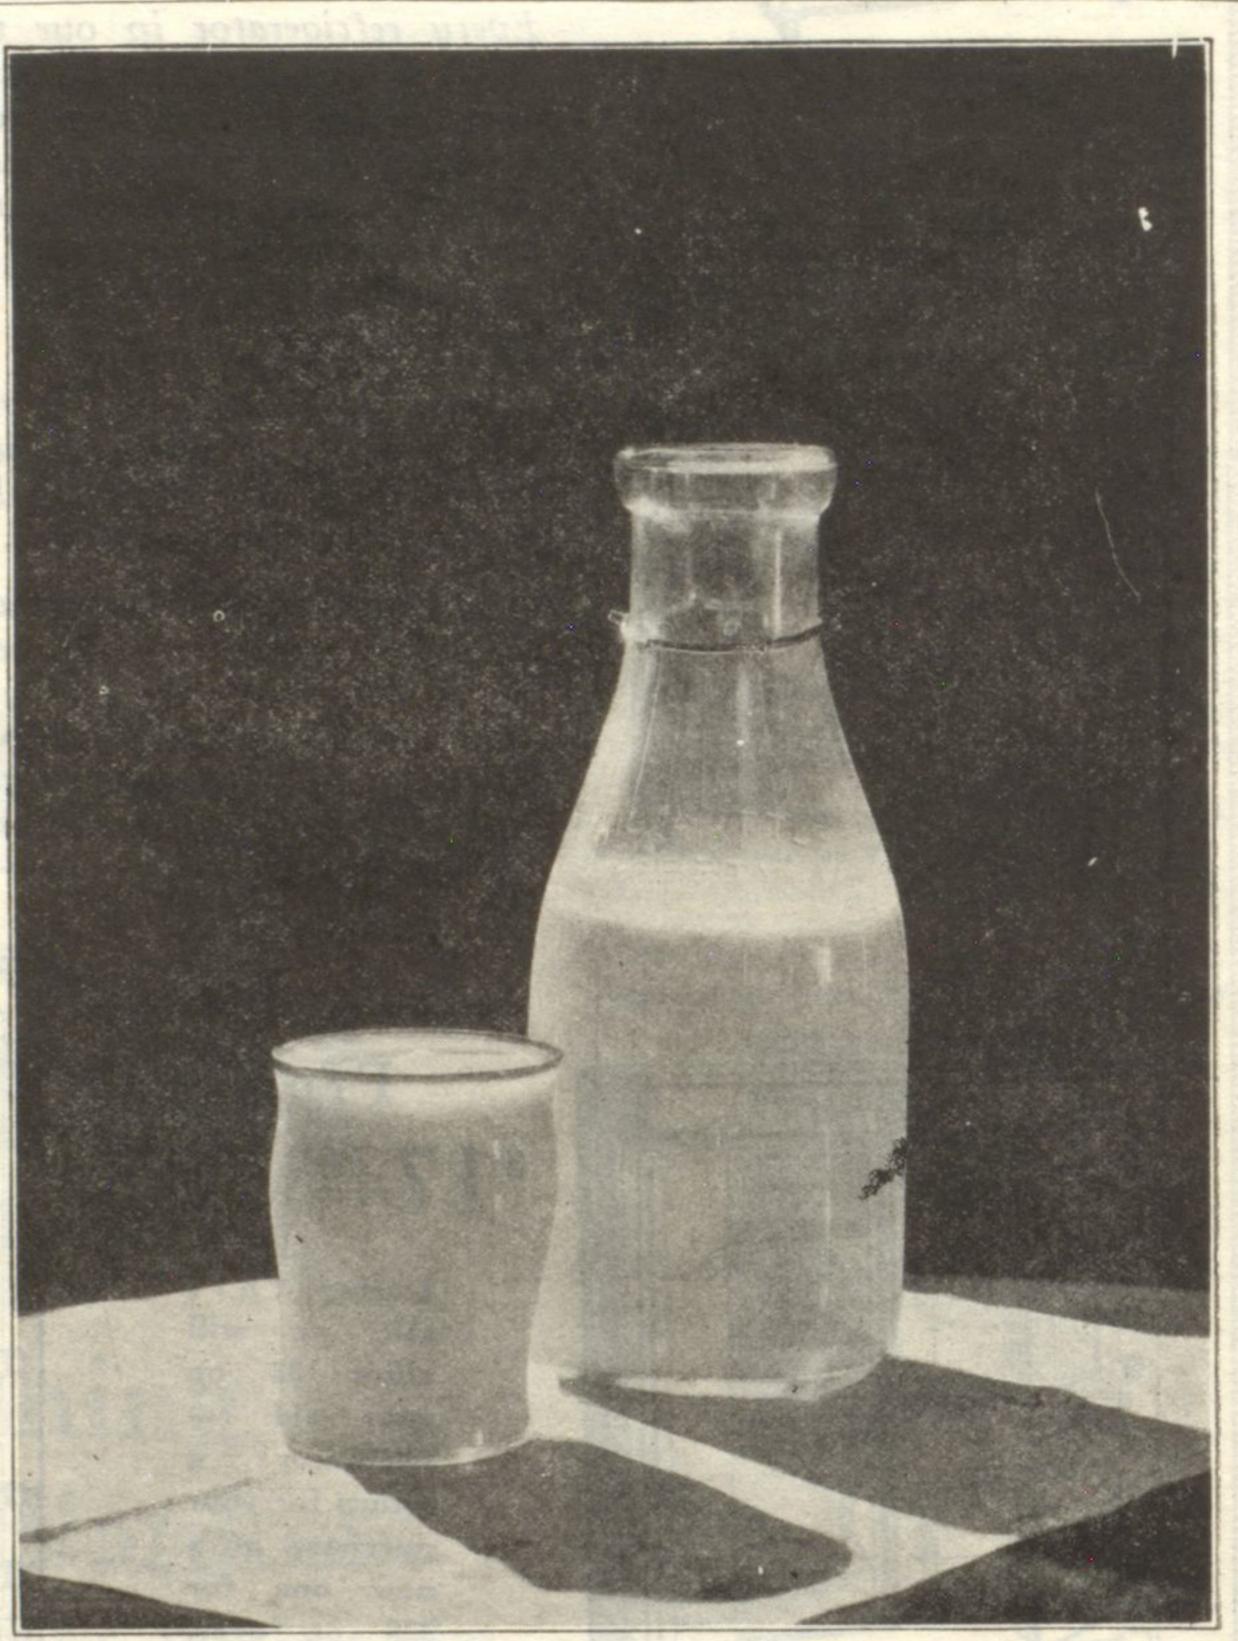

Industrial officials have found that lost time from sickness on the part of employees is ten times as great as the time lost from injury. Eighty percent of the time lost from sickness is in one or two-day absences, showing that the sickness is trivial, and thus avoidable.

Many well known health experts make up the faculty of the Red Cross Institute. Among them are: Dr. Herman N. Bundesen, Chicago commissioner of health, and his assistant, Dr. J. C. Geiger; Dr. John Dodson, editor of Hygeia Health magazine; J. B. Gib-Western Electric company; Dr. Walter W. Hamburger, of Michael Reese and grounds will be on view.

Cook county hospitals; Dr. E. S. Nelson, dietitian, Infant Welfare society; and Dr. W. B. Stovall, director, Wisconsin State Laboratory of Hygiene.
