

THROUGH our aid the quest for a North Shore home comes to such a happy conclusion that the question of "where to live" is answered permanently.

HOKANSON JENKS AND INC.
North Shore Properties

513 Davis St. EVANSTON Greenleaf 1617

Johnson and Brother Move to Acquire New Quarters in Glencoe

Gilbert D. Johnson & Brother announce their disposal of the lease of their office at 352 Park avenue, Glencoe, to the Green Tea Pot Candies company of Highland Park to take effect June 1. There are a number of new building projects in Glencoe, and Gilbert D. Johnson & Brother are negotiating for new and more commodious quarters in one of these business blocks.

Mr. R. G. McMillan who resides at 530 Longwood avenue, Glencoe, will continue in charge of the Glencoe district operating from the Chicago office at 110 South Dearborn street.

This firm is also negotiating for a branch office in Barrington so that their interests in that region may be handled more expeditiously.

Chicagoan Buys Meads Property in Winnetka

Warren S. Corning, president of Chicago Tube & Steel company has purchased the home of the late Albert T. Meads at 381 Sheridan road, Winnetka, for an undisclosed consideration. Haviland Realty company represented both parties. The house, consisting of five master bedrooms and three baths and servants' quarters was designed by Marshall and Fox.

The Kenilworth Garden club motored to Morton Grove Arboretum Tuesday and stopped on the way in Lombard to see the lilac garden of the late Colonel Plum.

There is more telephone wire serving the people of Illinois than in Asia and Africa combined.

Quinlan & Tyson Negotiate Many Real Estate Deals

Quinlan & Tyson, Inc., announce the closing of the following sales within the last three weeks.

Bert B. and Emma S. Barry sold to C. N. Ford the 7-room stucco and tile home at 211 Maple Hill road, Glencoe, on a lot 100x150. F. M. Orndorff of the Winnetka office of Quinlan & Tyson was the broker.

A. B. and G. A. Wood sold to Frederick W. Harlan the 7-room brick and stucco English home at 920 Greenwood avenue, Winnetka, on a lot 72x150. C. A. Gurshin of the Winnetka office of Quinlan & Tyson was the broker.

John W. Dickson sold to John B. King the vacant property 50x150 on the east side of Sheridan road, between Main and Lee streets, Evanston. Mr. King will improve the property in the near future. R. H. Peterson of the Evanston office of Quinlan & Tyson represented both parties.

Evelyn A. and G. W. Marquardt sold to Andrew E. and Eve M. Coburn the 9-room frame house at 930 Ridge avenue, Evanston on a lot 79x170. R. H. Peterson of the Evanston office of Quinlan & Tyson was the broker.

E. B. and Marian B. Wheeler sold to Roy H. and Bessie M. Goddard the brick two apartment building at 619 Library place, Evanston on a lot 45x177 and containing two 7-room and 2-bath apartments. There is also a 2-car garage with living quarters above. Pierre G. Beach of the Evanston office of Quinlan & Tyson was the broker.

Lester W. and Elizabeth B. Hesse sold to Charlotte M. Heermans the vacant lot 60x145 on the west side of Marcy avenue, between Central and Harrison streets, Evanston. The purchaser will build on the property in the near future. Pierre G. Beach represented both parties.

Mt. Moriah Lodge No. 28 sold to Edw. L. Middleton the vacant property 75x163 at the northeast corner of Ridge and Emerson street, Evanston. Mr. Middleton bought the property for investment. Pierre G. Beach was the only broker.

Estate of H. E. Chandler sold to Edwin M. Russell the vacant lot 37½x150 on Central street, west of McDaniel avenue, Evanston. The purchaser will build a 2-apartment building on the property. J. L. Corcoran of the Evanston office of Quinlan & Tyson was the broker.

Anna C. and Jeannie S. Quinlan sold to V. C. McGill the 11-room frame house at 1813 Hinman avenue, Evanston on a lot 68x160. J. L. Corcoran represented all parties.

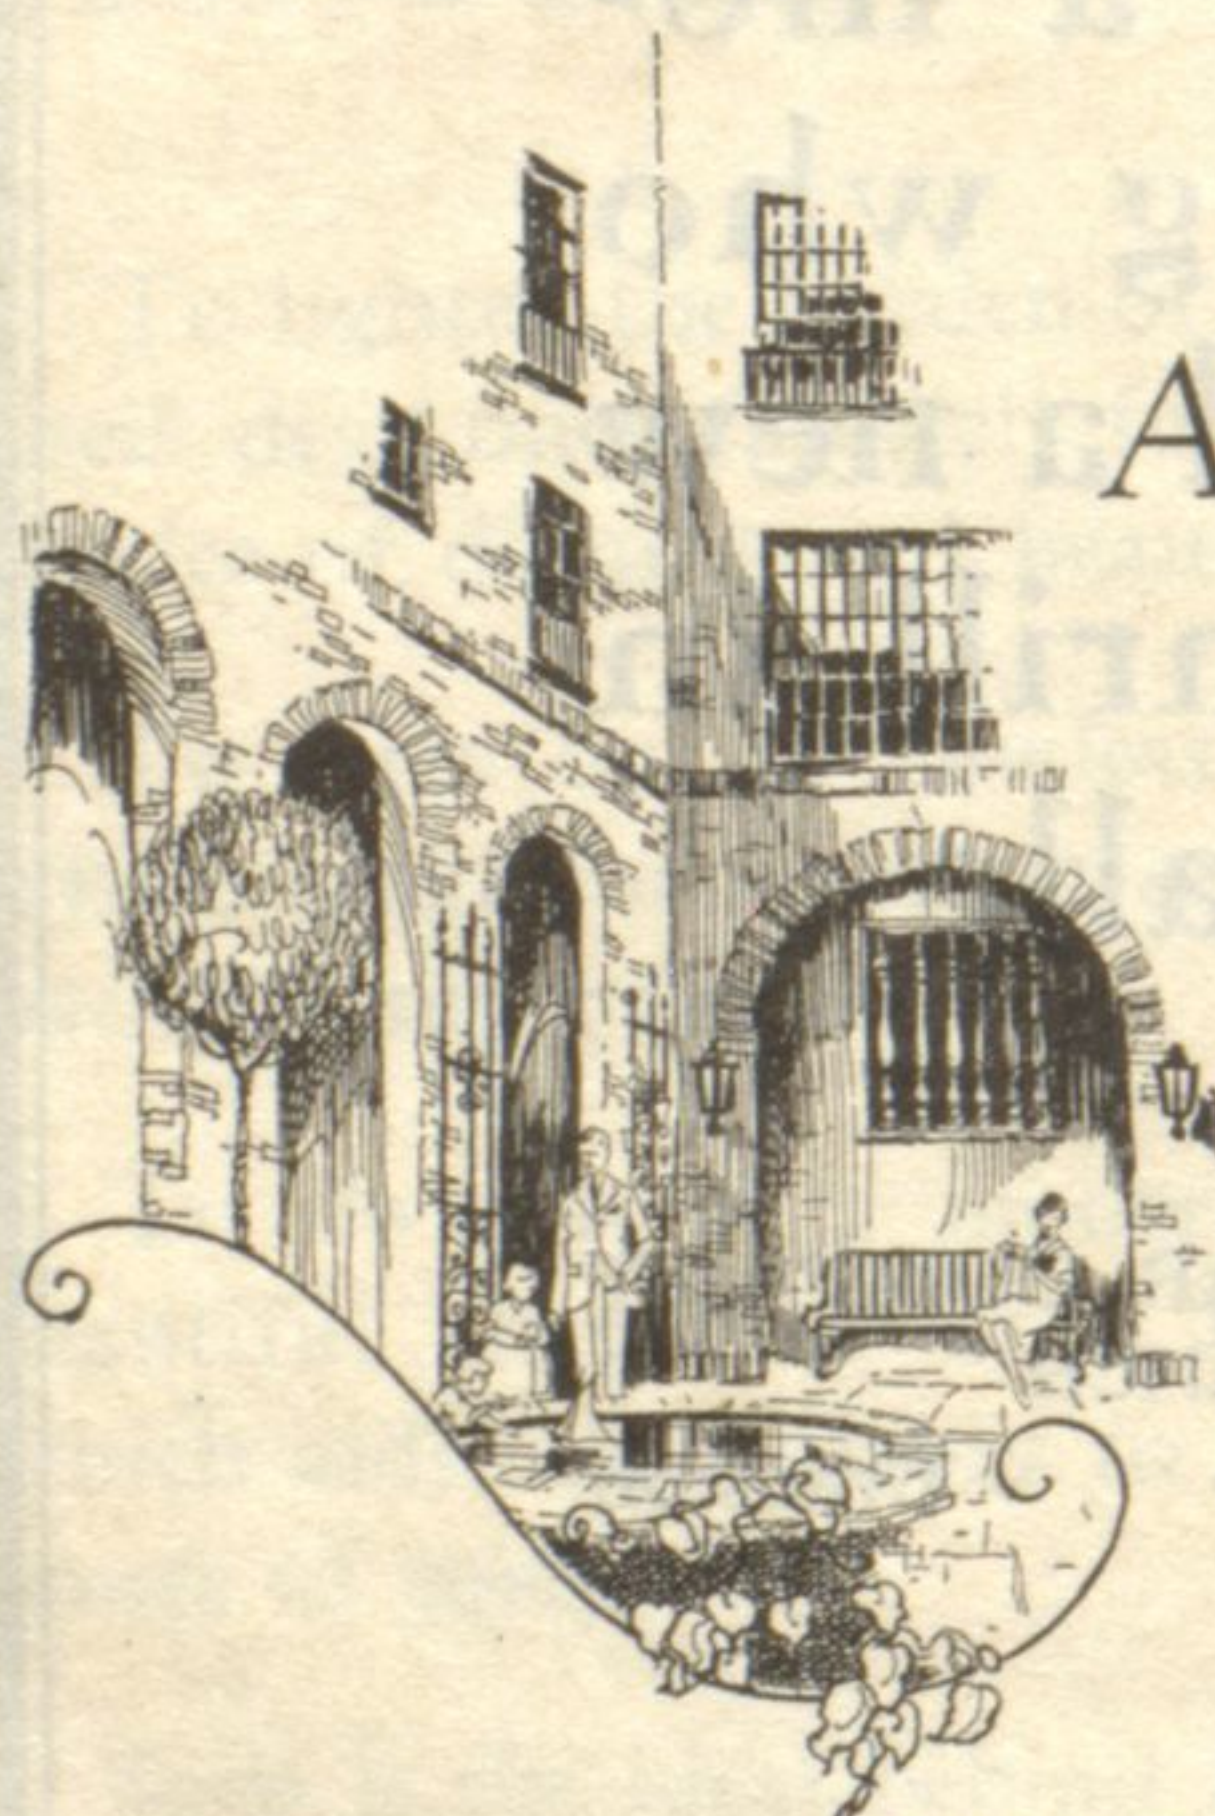

Cornelia R. Stevenson sold to Max and Anna B. Lehman the 8-room frame house at 2607 Ridge avenue, Evanston, on a lot 110x150. R. S. Crane of the Evanston office of Quinlan & Tyson was the broker.

Mary S. Langtry sold to George F. Gonsalves the vacant property 90x150 on the east side of Forestview road, between Colfax and Grant street, Evanston. Mr. Gonsalves will build on the property immediately. P. G. Beach of the Evanston office of Quinlan & Tyson was the broker.

Harold Martyn leased to R. W. Peet the 6-room brick residence at 1088 Pine street, Winnetka. Mr. Peet is with the Palmolive company. C. A. Gurshin of the Winnetka office of Quinlan & Tyson negotiated the lease.

Mrs. Frank Stover, 1183 Tower road, Winnetka entertained her Kenilworth sewing club last Friday. The guest of honor was Mrs. Robert Danley, formerly of Kenilworth and now of California, who is here on a short visit. The next meeting is to be held May 27, at the home of Mrs. David R. DeCamp, 615 Abbottsford road, Kenilworth.

The June Bride Solves Her Home Problem by Choosing The ELMGATE

A charming 1, 2 or 3 room furnished apartment at The Elmgate is the happiest solution to the home problem confronting the couple just launched into matrimony. No great responsibilities for the Bride, as yet unused to conducting a home—The quiet and seclusion which make the post-honeymoon so delightful—And time to shop and plan for the future permanent home.

To the delight of the Bridegroom and their parents the Bride will find economy possible at The Elmgate at a time when economy is most needed and hardest to practice. Optional maid service and moderate rental make this possible—Dining room, kitchen, or kitchenette.

INQUIRE NOW

Phone - - - Greenleaf 2100 - - - or write

The
ELMGATE

MAIN STREET AT ELMWOOD AVENUE
EVANSTON

"Happy days ahead—if you choose The Elmgate"

Be sure of this!
When we tell you anything about a property
We are stating STRAIGHT AND TO THE POINT FACTS!

for ACTION SEE
J.H. SCHAEFER & CO.
REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE
PHONE WILMETTE 364
831 RIDGE AVE. WILMETTE, ILL.