

WINNETKA TALK

Saturday, June 4, 1927

Newer Winnetka Library

Above is illustrated the Winnetka Library of the near future, enlargement of which merely awaits the favorable vote of the citizens of Winnetka. Saturday, June 11, on the proposition to issue $75,000 bonds to defray the cost of the much needed addition. Plans call for a virtual doubling of the capacity of the present library. The June 11 bond issue election has been authorized by the Village council and the Winnetka Library board is anxious to secure a representative expression on the proposition.