

North Shore Alumni to Attend U. of C. Sing

Around 700 North Shore residents who are alumni of the University of Chicago, are expected to attend the seventeenth annual University Sing which will be held around the fountain in Hutchinson court Saturday evening, June 11.

Fraternity men from many colleges and universities including Northwestern, will gather with the Chicago men on that evening. More than 3,000 men sang in the ceremony last year, with an audience of 12,000. Those in charge of the event expect fully as many to participate this year.

The program will also be featured by the announcement by President Max Mason, of the marshals and aides selected from next year's senior class for distinction in scholarship and activities. Coach A. A. Stagg will also award the C-blankets to all graduating men who have won the "C" in any sport. A bust of Coach Stagg will be presented to the university by the Alumni association.

String Quartette Gives Concert at Local Schools

A concert by a string quartet directed by Mr. Hansen, the violin instructor at the Skokie school, was given at each of the Winnetka schools on Thursday, June 2. The concert was the last of a series of musical appreciation concerts sponsored and financed by the Boston Music fund, of which Mr. Surette associated with the Winnetka faculty and a prime factor in the arrangement of the musical program in the Winnetka schools, is a director.

The program given was as follows: "First Movement and Minuet from Quartette in D Minor," Hadyn; "Serenade," Hadyn; "Canzonetta," Mendelssohn; "Molly on the Shore," Grainger; and "The Mill," Raff.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cary-Curr of 1051 Spruce street will entertain their supper bridge club Saturday, June 4.

They will cure any Cold or Cough. Will prevent Pneumonia, and Flu.
