

A Few North Shore Societies and Circles Still Meeting

Four Women's Groups Announce Plans for Future Activities

By JEAN TEN BROECK

One by one activities of women's clubs other than garden have lulled themselves to sleep for the summer months. Their members have more intimate things on hand, family outings, weddings, perhaps, and plans for long periods of travel. However, a few groups still have announcements to make.

The Kentucky society of Evanston and the North Shore is to hold its next meeting Tuesday afternoon, June 14, at the home of Mrs. T. Edward Quisenberry, 2517 Lincoln street, Evanston, at 2:30 o'clock. The program will concern itself with some phase of the History of Kentucky which is the theme of the summer and fall meetings. The board of directors of the society will gather at the home of Mrs. E. J. Buffington, 1140 Forest avenue, Evanston, for a meeting next Tuesday morning.

The Wilmette board of the Infant Welfare Society of Chicago held an all-day sewing meeting at the home of Mrs. Frederick Tilt in Evanston, Thursday, May 26. A nominating committee was appointed to report at the annual meeting to be held the fourth Thursday of June at the home of Mrs. Robert E. Kenyon, 1011 Greenwood avenue.

The next meeting of the North Shore Wellesley circle will take place Tuesday, June 7, at 2:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. George E. Bliss, 522 North Linden avenue, Highland Park.

The North Shore Catholic Woman's league will continue to hold its regular meetings in the Winnetka Woman's club, it was decided at a board meeting held May 27, at the home of the new president, Mrs. William Schildgen of Evanston. There will be no club meetings until October.

The following committee chairmen were chosen at the last meeting: Mrs. John Janette of Kenilworth, membership; Mrs. Charles Coyle of Winnetka, auditing; Mrs. Leo J. Hillman of Glencoe, house; Mrs. William Pavey of Winnetka, service; Mrs. Raymond Klopfer of Winnetka, revision; Mrs. Nels Anderson of Evanston, social.
