Maria Beauty Culture Occupies New Location

Maria Beauty Culture opened its new shop in the Humphrey building, Elm and Chestnut streets, this Wednesday. The decorations, executed by B. Dollimore, Winnetka decorator, are extremely interesting. The predominant colors are green and yellow, with green walls, yellow window curtains bordered in green, and light yellow drapes at the doors of the booths. The seven booths are divided by green partitions, and the grey linoleum floor covering has odd green figures. The wall and partitions are stencilled with Czecho-Slovakian flowers. The Czecho-Slovakian idea is also carried out in the tan and green reception room. Experienced attendants, garbed in yellow smocks, give patrons the best attention.

All the sanitary fixtures are of white. A barber's chair, of the proper height for cutting the curls of the tiniest child, has been installed.

Mrs. Marie Lagergren Dollimore is the proprietor of the Maria Beauty Culture.
