The Shops of UPTOWN CHICAGO equal any in the world

WHEN you ride or drive past the shops of Uptown Chicago to others more distant where jostling crowds bring weariness and irritation, what do you gain? If you think you are saving money, it is because you do not know Uptown Chicago values. Let your next shopping destination be Uptown Chicago. There's plenty of parking space if you drive, street cars, busses and the "L" if you don't, and you'll be delighted with Uptown Chicago's shops, the equal of any in the world. You know, of course, that Montrose, Clark and Argyle Streets and the Lake are the borders of Uptown Chicago.

When you plan to travel, use the Railroad Union Ticket Office — buy your ticket, reserve your Pullman and check your baggage at the Uptown Station.
