

ANNOUNCE SEAT SALE PLANS FOR RAVINIA

Box-office to Be Opened to General Public for First Week's Operas June 18

Seats for the first week of the new season of Ravinia opera and concerts which opens Saturday night, June 25, will be placed on sale for the general public at the box-office at Ravinia, Saturday morning, June 18. Mail orders will be received in the meantime and prospective purchasers who desire to make reservations by mail at this time should address The Ravinia company, 36 S. State street, Chicago. It is necessary to advise the public that for the opening performance of the season, Saturday night, June 25, the guarantors have the first call for tickets and until these have been served it is impossible to determine what seats will be available for general sale. If mail orders cannot be filled, the money will be refunded.

For the last two weeks Louis Eckstein has been deluged with inquiries from those who expect to attend the performances at Ravinia this season, and many questions have been asked. For the benefit of these inquirers he has issued a statement setting forth the information that is in demand. The Ravinia box-office, Mr. Eckstein explains, will be open every day during the season, including Sundays, from 9:30 o'clock in the morning until 10 o'clock at night. Residents of those towns from Evanston to Milwaukee may secure telephone connections with the Ravinia box-office by calling Highland Park 2727. This is a double line, thereby preventing congestion as much as possible.

Seats so reserved, however, must be taken up by 10:30 o'clock the following morning, or check sent to The Ravinia company, Ravinia, Ill., to reach the box-office by that time, and tickets will be mailed or held, as may be desired. If reservations are made on the day of the performance for which they are desired, the tickets must be paid for at the box-office before 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

Use Deposit Plan

For the benefit of those who desire to order tickets in advance, and who find it more convenient to have them held until called for, an arrangement which has been entirely satisfactory in the past will be in vogue again this year. Under this plan those desiring such accommodations, will make a deposit of $20, for which a receipt will be given. Seats ordered in advance will then be held until called for at the box-office, but must be paid for at that time to leave the total amount of the deposit intact.

There can be no returns, cancellations or exchanges, nor may depositors transfer their rights for the use of others, under this plan. When tickets so ordered are not called for, they will be charged to the depositor. These deposits may be made after June 18 at the Ravinia box-office, or may be made now by mail addressed to The Ravinia company, 36 S. State street, Chicago. The deposits will be returned at the end of the season in September.

In addition to the splendid transportation facilities it enjoys, Ravinia has always been a paradise for motorists, the roads from every direction stretch through the most beautiful portions of the north shore. As a convenience to the thousands who arrive by motor car, two extensive parking spaces are maintained, one at the Sheridan road entrance, and the other at the Green Bay road entrance. These are adequate in every way.

There are ample box-office accommodations at Ravinia to facilitate the delivery on the evening of the performance of tickets which have been ordered by mail or telephone, it is explained.

ENTERS BUSINESS FIELD

E. P. Siegel resigned his position as forwarding clerk at the Winnetka post-office the first of the month, to go into the ice cream business in Hubbard Woods. Miss Olive Stevenson, a substitute clerk for the past two years, is his successor.

RETURNS TO POST

Louis Knackstadt resumed his duties at the Winnetka post office Wednesday. He had been absent since May 14, as the result of a surgical operation which he was forced to undergo.

Miss Susan Burlingham of 630 Maple avenue, who has been studying at Vassar college, has returned home.
