Launch Workshop to Swell Coffers of Charity Fund

People of the north shore and of Highland Park in particular will have opportunity for the first time since the organization of the Industrial Workshop movement in Chicago, to aid this philanthropic enterprise by making purchases of the products of the Workshop during the summer months, at the branch shop which is being opened at Highland Park.

This shop will be opened Monday, June 20, at 19 South St. John's avenue, where various articles made in the Industrial Workshop in Chicago will be on sale. These articles include brooms, maids' dresses and aprons, bathroom rugs, textiles, negligees, bed jackets, French night gowns, silk underwear, pajamas and a varied line of gifts.

These sales are not conducted for profit and are under the management of various women of Highland Park and the north shore who are interested in charity work in Chicago.

The shop, regardless of its philanthropic purpose, it is announced will be conducted on a strictly business basis.

"Dream Star" Wins Race at Sheridan Shore Club

Earl T. DeMoe's "Dream Star" won first place in the Sheridan Shore Yacht club Star class race held from the Wilmette harbor Saturday, June 11. W. C.
