FIRST TOURNAMENT DRAWS RECORD CROWD

Skokie Playfield Committees Announce Attractive List of Season's Golf Events

The first tournament of the season at Skokie Playfield, match play against par, last Saturday and Sunday, was featured by one hundred eight entries, the largest number ever recorded at this popular course at the season's opening event. In addition to the number of actual entrants in the tournament events, there were also two or three hundred other players on the course during the week end and on Sunday, evidencing the increasing popularity of Playfield.

The tournament was won by D. Epstein, while tied for second place were E. Hartshorn, H. Carpenter and J. E. Bradstreet.

If the weather is favorable today and tomorrow, it is expected the number of entrants in the tournament scheduled for these dates, an eighteen hole, handicap, medal play, with two prizes for each low net and low gross, will be doubled.

The tournament committee of which Elmer Nelson is chairman, has completed the finest schedule of season's events the community has ever been offered. Mrs. C. B. Cook is chairman of the Woman's tournament committee.

Throughout the planning for the season, the committees are being ably assisted by Wallie Stetzel, who is again Professional at Skokie Playfield.
