War Show to Be Held in Grant Park Next Week

Whether or not Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, America's greatest flier, is able to attend, Chicago will have its greatest war show in Grant Park on June 24, 25 and 26.

With seven squadrons of airplanes, two dirigibles, regiments from Fort Sheridan and the 33rd Tank Company, 131st, 132nd Infantry, 122nd Field Artillery, and 202nd Anti-Air Craft, Illinois National Guard, Col. T. A. Siqueland, the officer in charge, has arranged a program that will show every device and method used in modern war.

Parachute jumping, radio broadcasting from an airplane, aerial photographing and finishing in the air, cavalry charges, tanks mopping up machine gun nests and the burning of Chateau-Thierry are some of the outstanding features.

The show will be opened by Vice-President Charles G. Dawes. With him will be Gov. Len Small, United States Senator Deneen, Mayor William Hale Thompson and other notables. Mrs. Edith Rockefeller McCormick, Samuel Insull, Col. Edward Blair and others prominent in society have obtained boxes and will act as patrons and patronesses.

Tickets are on sale at all Walgreen drug stores, booths at State and Madison streets, the City Hall, Lyon and Healy and all Couthouli theater ticket agencies.

Oak street circle will have a picnic for members and their children Tuesday, June 21, at Lake Front park. Rain or shine, all will meet at 11 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. A. M. Ramsey, 903 Cherry street. The members are to bring a box luncheon, and cake, ice-cream and coffee will be served by hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald M. Cook, with Donald, Jr., have moved into the Elza M. Smith house at 1239 Asbury avenue. The Smiths have moved to Chicago. Mr. Cook was in Winnetka twelve years ago, in the village manager's office, and comes now from Grand Rapids.

Add Violin Instructor for Elementary Grades

Upon the recommendation of Thomas Whitney Surette, musical advisor of the Winnetka schools, and with the endorsement of the directors of the musical departments of the various schools, a violin instructor for pupils in the fourth, fifth and sixth grades has been added to the faculty. These lessons will be financed through tuitions paid by the pupils registering for the work. They will prepare the pupils, it is said, for participation in the Skokie orchestra.

Miss Mary N. Graham, who for the past six years has been in charge of the violin and orchestra work in the elementary schools and High school of Waterloo, Iowa, has been selected to take over this work and is taking the summer course given by Mr. Surette at Concord in preparation for the particular type of work in the local schools. Miss Graham has made an outstanding success of her work at Waterloo and comes to Winnetka admirably trained to work with and understand little children, it is said.

Mrs. John C. Cobb and her son of 615 Elm street are leaving for Boston next week. They will stay there until the middle of July, visiting in Milton, Mass., and will attend the twenty-fifth class reunion of Mr. Cobb at Harvard.

Mrs. Ava Carnes Van Dyke has returned to her home in Iowa City, Iowa, after spending several days with Mrs. L. A. West of 860 Pine street.

Miss Virginia Wallace Custodian at Wellesley

Miss Virginia Wallace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wallace of 815 Mount Pleasant road, has finished her freshman year at Wellesley and is now visiting friends in the East. She will spend some time in Maine, and will also visit Miss Ashton Wilson, a former Winnetka girl, who now lives in North Carolina. In July, she will be joined at Swampscott, Mass, by Mrs. Wallace and the two youngest children of the family. They will be there for about a month. Miss Wallace has been prominent in athletics at Wellesley. She was captain of the hockey team of her class and is custodian of the athletic association. Her brother, John Wallace, has just been graduated from Principia. He will probably go to camp while his mother is in the East.
