

Stults Manager on Motor Tour of East; Returns on July 11

Jane T. McDowell, manager of the Wilmette office of the E. E. Stults Realty company, together with her husband, W. J. McDowell, and their son and daughter, John and Naomi, left Friday, June 17, on a motor trip to Buffalo, N. Y., where Mr. McDowell planned to spend a week at his factory, The Buffalo Forge company, attending the annual sales conference and outings of the concern.

From Buffalo the family will drive to West Hartford, Conn., to visit Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Richards, who were guests of the McDowells in Wilmette a year ago. They expect to return to Wilmette about July 11.

John McDowell, more familiarly known as "Johnny," graduated from the Central Grammar school last week and Naomi has just completed her first year at Northwestern university where she was president of the Green Lantern club and has had other honors, as indicated in having had her photograph with five different groups in the latest issue of the N. U. Syllabus.

Last week Mr. McDowell attended the 25th anniversary of his class at the University of Chicago.

Jack Hunter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Percival Hunter, 510 Ash street, who has been attending Lake Forest academy, has returned home for the summer vacation.

Rev. Richards to Leave on Vacation Next Week

Rev. James Austin Richards will preach the sermons at both the morning and evening services at the Winnetka Congregational church, Sunday. His sermon topic in the morning at 11 o'clock, will be, "Paths to Freedom," and the topic announced for the evening sermon at 8 o'clock, is, "Vivid Religion." He will also preach the Junior sermon during the morning worship, for which his topic will be, "Seeing God." All boys and girls are invited to this service.

This will be Rev. Richards' last Sunday preceding his summer vacation, which he is taking early this year. He and his family expect to leave the middle of next week for the Puget Sound country, making Bellingham, Washington, their headquarters.

Rev. Thomas A. Goodwin has been at Tower Hill, Michigan, this week as dean of the Young People's conference.

REPRESENTS HONOR SOCIETY

Miss Elizabeth Stutson, daughter of the Willis Stutsons, of 479 Sunset road, returns today from Minneapolis, where she has been spending the week at a convention of Theta Sigma Phi, national journalistic society. Miss Stutson was one of the representatives from the University of Illinois chapter of the organization, the other Illinois representatives being Miss Enid Baird of Danville, and Miss Doris Miller of Chicago, president of the chapter.
