CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP

Parish house, Oak street, Winnetka
Pastor A. E. Rohrbach

Hours of Worship

Sunday 8 p. m.
Subject: "Never Forget!"
Wednesday 8 p. m.
Swedish service.

A cordial welcome is extended to all.

"If you forget Him, your pleasures will slay you, your friendships will lose their savor, your business will tyrannize over you. The best service we can do for the world is to keep fresh and vivid the image of Christ."

Mrs. Arlan W. Converse, Mrs. George Gonsalves, and Mrs. George R. Roehm were Winnetka women presiding at the tea tables at the tea sponsored by the North Shore Alliance of Upsilon chapter of Delta Delta Delta in honor of the alumnae who returned for commencement at Northwestern university and for the members of this year's graduating class. The affair was held at the home of Mrs. George Tomlinson of Evanston last Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Edgar Foster Alden of 352 Linden street, president of the Southern Woman's club of Chicago, was one of the guests of honor at the dinner and reception given Thursday at the Windemere East hotel in honor of Gov. Dan Moody of Texas. Other Winnetka residents who had lived in Texas attended the affair which was given by a committee of several hundred Texans.

Mrs. Harry C. Curry, 797 Willow road, entertained a number of friends at the Illinois Golf club Monday, June 13, at a bridge luncheon and lingerie shower for Mrs. Clifton Stowers (Miss Vivian Holmes of Evanston), who was married Saturday, June 18, at the First Presbyterian church of Evanston.
