

This Is the Bank That Safety Built

THINK this as you come to the opening of our new banking home.

"This is the bank that Safety built."

Over two score and ten years ago, Safety created—caused—its being.

Through war and panic—through good times and bad—Safety has guided it.

Again and again Safety has moved it into stronger, and still stronger walls.

Safety has permeated and dominated every act of its officers—every transaction—every obligation.

Here Safety is enshrined. It cannot be carried too far—not in this bank.

And what is the result?

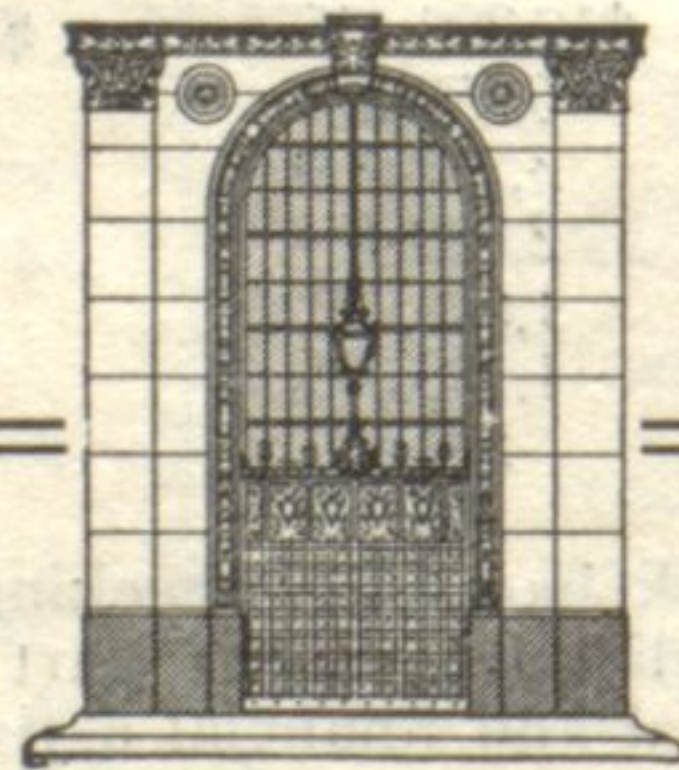

Your transactions with this institution have that quality of confidence which you require.
