Kenilworth News

Mrs. Henry Riggs Rathbone of Sheridan road, Kenilworth is at home for the summer months after her usual winter in Washington and in Florida. For many years she has made it a practice to spend the summertime in Kenilworth where she entertains generously and lavishly. Her luncheons and dinners are always examples of the genial hospitality and careful thought. Mrs. Rathbone is now president of the Illinois branch of the League of Amer- ican Pen Women and is very busy in this work and in her writing. A new book of her poems is soon to come from the press.

There was an error in the announce- ment last week regarding the new Bel- nap Hawkes baby. The baby is a boy and is named for his paternal grand- father Benjamin Carleton Hawkes. Mrs. Hawkes is leaving the last of June for a three months' trip to Europe. He will visit Spain, Norway, and Sweden, sailing from New York on July 2. Many Kenilworth residents will remember her clever and beau- tiful niece, Miss Louise Hawkes, who has occasionally visited here. Miss Hawkes will act as hostess on the steamer and has arranged the party.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hedrick of Kenilworth with Phebe and Marion, left Thursday for Leland, Mich., where they have a cottage for the rest of the summer. Virginia Hedrick is just returning from a trip to Duluth on one of the large freight boats which ply the lakes, the guest of Julia Fleming of Evanston, whose father owns the boat. Virginia will attend the sum- mer school at Northwestern universi- ty this year.

Skokie club card parties are proving the usual lure to members of the club and a number of Kenilworth women entertained last Tuesday. Among these were Mrs. E. John Hicks, Mrs. George Jones and Mrs. George Kings- ley. Mrs. Hicks had a small dinner on Tuesday evening for a few of her friends whose husbands were busy at the golf clubs that evening.

Mrs. Frank Cherry and Miss Jean- nette Cherry of Kenilworth are enter- taining this afternoon at a tea from 4 to 6 in honor of Mrs. James Crowell Cherry, formerly Miss Frances Dockery of Memphis.
