Ambulance Men for Ambulance Service

We do not believe that Sick people appreciate seeing the Undertaker come into the sick room, therefore I do not serve personally on the Ambulance (except in an emergency).

Neither do we pick fellows from the street to serve as attendants. Our Invalid Coach is in charge of a Mr. Sidney A. Stokes, who had charge of the Ambulance Service of one of the largest Undertaking firms in Chicago.

No extra charge for Night calls.

Little JOURNEYS to the LAUNDRY

...and most important of all
... the people

We have shown you some of the interesting machines and methods that make possible Today's better laundry service.

But a much more important phase of our service which we have not shown you is the people who work for you here—men and women conscientiously selected and carefully trained for this work. They give to your washing and ironing, discriminating, individual care; the same thoughtful attention you would give it at home.

They are such people as you would personally select for this work.

Send us your next washing and discover for yourself how thoroughly and satisfactorily your washing will be done. You will find that we have here exactly the help you want, at a price you will be glad to pay.
