

"No Man's Land"
Annexation Bill
Dies in Senate

No Man's Land bill was defeated in the State legislature Wednesday with a vote of 16-13, 16 for, 13 against, but it did not get the 26 affirmative votes required. Twenty senators sat in their seats and refused to vote either way. The bill had sought forceable annexation to Wilmette.

Arthur Bonnet, chairman of the New Trier Citizens' committee, sponsors of the bill, declared that "the senate vote, though disappointing, was by no means unexpected to those who have been close to the progress of the bill."

"The Citizens' committee," he stated, "fought for the bill on its merits, and on its merits the bill should have passed both houses unanimously."

Mr. Bonnet declared the bill would be re-introduced in the extra session of the legislature which, it is expected, will convene in October. He also states that other plans to bring "No Man's Land" under municipal jurisdiction are already in progress.

Family Reception Follows
Pearson-Schneider Wedding

La Verne Pearson, and Edmund Schneider, son of Matthew Schneider and the late Mrs. Schneider of Wilmette, were married at the Sacred Heart church in Hubbard Woods at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning. The Rev. F. J. Haarth performed the ceremony. A reception for the two immediate families was held at the home of the bride's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. August C. Pearson, 898 Cherry street. Miss Beatrice Flynn was maid of honor and Joseph Schneider, the groom's brother, was best man. A little cousin of the groom, Dorothy Schneider, was flower girl and the small brother of the bride, James Pearson, carried the ring.

The bride was gowned in white satin, and orange blossoms trimmed her long tulle veil. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and valley lilies. The maid of honor was in pale pink georgette crepe and carried an arm bouquet of pink roses. The flower girl and ring bearer were in white, the former carrying a basket of spring flowers, the latter the ring on a white satin pillow.

Mr. and Mrs. Schneider are on a wedding trip to the Dells and several Wisconsin cities. They will be at home on West Lake avenue, Wilmette, after July 15.
