Garage Owners Attention!

Of course everybody is after as much business as he can intelligently handle. We know that we can give you better service, quicker service on your supplies than any of the Chicago companies. . . And you'll find that as far as prices go, that we have either the edge on them or at least equal to them. . . Now, we have a man to call on you and facilitate the placing of your orders. . . Allow us to introduce Dave Wachsman. We employ him but he's yours for service. If in the course of the week he doesn't get around to you just when you need parts etc., call up here and we'll either send out what you need, or Dave will come around to find out what it is. . .

Expect a Call from Dave Wachsman this Week
