

Goodwin to Preside Over Congregational Services

Rev. Thomas A. Goodwin will conduct both services at the Winnetka Congregational Church, Sunday. His sermon topic in the morning at 11 o'clock will be "What Are We Worth?" The Junior sermon topic, also at this service, will be, "Good Roads." The sermon topic in the evening will be "The Comfort of Work."

Mrs. Clarence E. Melhope of 300 Woodland avenue left last Monday evening for Cincinnati, where her sisters, Mrs. C. O. Petsche, is quite ill.

HAS RAVINIA BOOKS

Mrs. John Vennema may be called at Winnetka 554 by those desiring books of tickets for Ravinia.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Greene whose home has been at 776 Prospect avenue, are moving Monday to their new home at 740 Hinman avenue, Evanston.

Warner H. Robinson, and his two sons, Warner, Jr., and Allen, left yesterday for New Mexico. They will spend about five weeks on a ranch there.

Would Make Skokie Big World Airport

adequate room for hangars, repair stations etc., is another advantage.

Secretary of Commerce Hoover in a recent interview on the subject of Chicago's becoming the aviation center of the United States, said in part:

"Chicago is the greatest airport in the world. This is the destiny of Chicago, already the greatest railroad center in the world, according to the plans for the immediate development of commercial aviation upon which the department of commerce is now at work. "Chicago is to be the center of a vast network of air lines radiating in every direction to the far corners of the country. That the development will be of incalculable commercial value to Chicago is not doubted, for these airways will connect Chicago with a score of cities with an aggregate population of 25,000,000. It is going to mean big business for Chicago."

Uncle of Frank Bersbach Passes Away in Ravenswood

Funeral services for Oscar J. Bersbach, uncle of Frank Bersbach of Indian Hill, were held from the residence in Ravenswood on Monday, July 11, with interment at Graceland cemetery.

Mr. Bersbach, who was 67 years of age, was the secretary and treasurer of the Manz company, printers and engravers of Chicago, and was well known as a philanthropist. He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Helen Wiebolt, and a son, Elmer, who is vice president of the Manz company.

CHIEF TO HOSPITAL

Patrick Murray, Kenilworth chief of police, left early this week for Rochester, Minn., where he will undergo treatment at the Mayo clinic. Victor C. Faulstick, who has just been promoted to the rank of sergeant, will act as chief of police during the absence of Chief Murray.

Bob Cochran, son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Cochran of 370 Chestnut street, is spending the summer on a ship which sailed from New York, and will go down through the Panama Canal and north on the Pacific. They will touch at all western ports, the last one being Seattle. Bob's sister, Mary Alice, is at Indian Hill camp, Ludington, Mich.

NORTH SHORE SCOUTS GRANTED NEW AWARDS

Honor and Satisfactory campers during this first period also.

The second period at Camp Checaugau opened July 11 with the following north shore Scouts among the seventy or eighty boys enjoying the outing: Adam Bauer, Troop 9, Wilmette; Carl Lincoln, Troop 23, Glencoe; William Brandl, John Brandl, William Danby, and Clarence Dahl, Troop 24, Hubbard Woods; Grant Herman, Randolph Herman, Branierd Chapman, and Morton Traub, of Troop 31, Highland Park; Robert Phelps, Harry Carlson, Troop 32, Highland Park; Sidley Chapman, Robert Johnston, Parker Johnston, Merton Person, and Nicholas Wink, of Troop 33, Highland Park; Oscar Goepner, Troop 35, Ravinia; Thomas Brennen, Troop 36 Highwood.

Scouts in Other Camps

Besides these Scouts at Camp Checaugau there are other north shore Scouts at the following camps: Waukegan Council Scout Camp at Lily Lake, Wis.; Camp Wabamingo, Evanston Scout Camp near Michillinda, Mich.; the Winnetka Community House Camp near Ludington, Mich. (where the Winnetka Scouts go); and the camp of the Wilmette Methodist church near Watervliet, Mich. From the above it can be seen that Scouts of the north shore enjoy and want camping and are looking eagerly forward to the time when they can all join together in one Scout Camp of their own, under their own leaders.

Golf Club Leases Large Tract on Waukegan Road

A tract of 137 acres bounded by Waukegan, Willow and Techney roads and the Chicago & Northwestern Railroad Mayfair branch has been leased by the owners, a Catholic organization known as the Society of the Divine World, for a golf course. The lease calls for a rental of $90,000 for the 10 years, eight months term and stipulates that the lessee shall erect a golf shelter house to cost not less than $40,000 nor more than $75,000. The lessee is also to lay out an eighteen hole course, to be ready for players by June 1, 1928. Frank J. Seng, of the Seng company, Chicago, is president of the club and E. A. Kalkhurst of the Burroughs Adding Machine Co. is vice-president.

STEAL BOYDEN CAR

A Packard limousine, 1922 model, with gray body and disc wheels was stolen from the William C. Boyden garage, 725 Pine street, Winnetka, some time Wednesday night. The garage is located about 200 feet from the residence.

Three Winnetka boys have left to spend the summer at Duke's camp, Owakonze, Ontario. The boys are Bob Alexander, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Alexander of 1275 Scott avenue, "Bud" Clabaugh, son of the Hinton Clabaughs of 1324 Scott avenue, and Bill Kurtz, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Kurtz of 1229 Scott avenue.

Miss Mary S. King, 672 Maple avenue, has left to spend some time in California. She expects to make a trip to Honolulu before her return to Winnetka about September 1. Miss King was accompanied on her trip west by Miss Lillian Price and Miss Brady, who are members of the New Trier High school faculty.

The world's largest outdoor swimming pool, having accommodations for 5,000 persons at one time, is near Aurora, Illinois.
