Winnetka 930Auburn Wins Stock Car Race at 89 Miles HourIn one of the most gruelling stock car contests ever held in the United States an Auburn car raced the 100-mile course at the Rockingham speedway at Salem, N. H., to a victory that set a new record. The race was held July 4.Pitted against competition that is known the world over, the Auburn roadster, with Wade Morton at the wheel, rode out a victory at an average speed of 89.19 miles per hour.The race was run under the supervision of the American Automobile association contest board. At the suggestion of the track officials the Auburn drivers waived the 300-inch displacement rule, in order to admit to the contest any make or model car.The winning Auburn car finished the race in perfect condition, it is reported, apparently capable of continued indefinite performance.Photographer
