

Virginia Van Wie
Keeps Title; Beats
Miss Morse, 4 and 3

By RAY C. PEARSON

Playing a sterling brand of golf, sometimes at par figure and always very close to it, Miss Virginia Van Wie of Beverly, repeating her triumph of last year, defeated Miss Josephine Morse of South Shore and Midlothian in a stubbornly contested final of the Western Women's Golf association's city championship at North Shore late last week. The margin at the finish was 4 and 3. Five hundred formed the gallery following the match.

Miss Van Wie probably never played better golf than she displayed in defeating Miss Morse. Steadiness was her middle name and this is evidenced by the fact that never once was she in real trouble. Her driving was pretty and the same could be said of her work on the greens.

On the other hand Miss Morse seemed to be a trifle nervous at the start. On the first nine she had no less than three sixes, which enabled Miss Van Wie to be 2 up at the turn. Coming in they halved the tenth, Miss Van Wie won the eleventh and twelfth and then Miss Morse rallied for a remarkable display of golf. The South Shore player won the thirteenth with a birdie and at this point was three down. The fourteenth was halved and then came the fifteenth and finish of the match, when Miss Morse missed a halving putt, which spelled defeat.

The championship which opened Monday produced some fine golf, and saw the elimination of several North Shore stars, among them being Mrs. C. M. Case of Illinois who lost to Miss Virginia Wilson of Onwentsia 4 and 3, and Mrs. John Arends of Wilmette who was beaten by Mrs. Austin Pardue of Indian Hill, 8 and 7. These were first round matches and in another Mrs. Arthur Goodman of Sunset Ridge lost to Miss Morse, 3 and 1.

EXTRA HOLE MATCHES

Two extra hole matches featured the first round, one of which Mrs. Jack Vilas of Glen View defeated Mrs. C. W. Blackwell of Calumet, 1 up in 19 holes. The next round, however, saw the elimination of Mrs. Vilas, Mrs. Lee W. Mida of Butterfield winning over her 1 up in a close match.

The lone representative of the north shore section to survive to the semi-final round was Mrs. Austin Pardue of Indian Hill, but in this round Mrs. Pardue fell before the onslaught of Miss Van Wie, who won 5 and 3. In the other semi-final match Miss Morse defeated Mrs. Mida, 2 and 1.

A feature of the week's play was the breaking of the course record. Mrs. Mida lowered a mark of 83 set by Miss Van Wie in the qualifying round. Mrs. Mida scored an 80 in the first round.

If the North Shore players were disappointed by their showing in the championship, they managed to distinguish themselves in other flights.

Results of subordinate flights were as follows:

Miss Virginia Ingram, Sunset Ridge, defeated Mrs. J. Arends of Wilmette 2 up.

SECOND FLIGHT

Mrs. C. C. Kendrick, Indian Hill, defeated Mrs. J. A. Romer, Westward Ho, 2 and 1.

SECOND FLIGHT CONSOLATION

Mrs. A. G. Mayger, Flossmoor, defeated Miss Helen Peterson, Evanston, 1 up.

THIRD FLIGHT

Miss Mercedes Bush, Westmoreland, defeated Miss Lillian McEntee, Olympia Fields, 3 and 2.

THIRD FLIGHT CONSOLATION

Mrs. C. A. Klotz, Indian Hill, defeated Mrs. H. P. Saunders, North Shore, 1 up in 19 holes.

FOURTH FLIGHT

Miss Mary Joslyn, Hinsdale, defeated Mrs. W. S. Thompson, Ridge, 5 and 4.

FOURTH FLIGHT CONSOLATION

Mrs. D. J. Gallagher, Park Ridge defeated Mrs. S. W. Shipp, Wilmette, 1 up in 19.

Illinois' death rate during 1926 was 11.88 per 1,000 of population. In the six other largest states the average death rate was 12.6.
