

John Alling Keith of Kenilworth Dies After Brief Illness

John Alling Keith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Keith, 310 Warwick road, Kenilworth, passed away on Monday, July 11, at the home of his parents. Funeral services were held from the residence Wednesday with burial at Rosehill. Rev. Leland H. Danforth officiated.

Mr. Keith was a graduate of New Trier High school and of the University of Illinois and had enjoyed a wide acquaintance among the younger people throughout the north shore. He was associated with the firm of Keith Brothers, of Chicago, in the credit department, having become identified with them as a clerk upon graduation from the university. His progress had been rapid in his work and in his associations there, as elsewhere, he had made many firm friends.

He is survived, in addition to his father and mother, by four brothers, Elbridge, Carl, Jr., Harold and Thomas, and by four sisters, Mrs. Cleon M. Larsen, Margaret, Marion and Jean Keith.

Mrs. Edward E. Silk, who is occupying the J. T. Lake home at 129 Fifth street, Wilmette for the summer, entertained at dinner Tuesday evening in honor of Mrs. Webster Baker, who is the guest of Mrs. C. H. Bent of 112 Woodland avenue, Winnetka. Mrs. Wilson and her daughter, Miss Muriel, of Toronto, Canada, who are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Reed Brown of Lake Bluff, were also special guests for the evening.

Son of the Barker

Owen Davis, Jr., who was guest of honor at the Evanston Woman's club Tuesday, distinguishes himself nightly at the Blackstone theater in the role of the young son of "The Barker," in the play of that title, which has just passed its one hundredth performance. Mr. Davis is the son of Owen Davis, celebrated playwright who won the Pulitzer prize in 1923 with his play of New England life, "Icebound." Mrs. Richard Bennett and Howard Potter, manager of the company, were also guests at the club Tuesday. Mr. Potter has previously been manager for Mary Garden and was one year manager of the North Shore Festival week here.
