

V. C. Carlson Buys Radio Station WEHS for Orrington Hotel

Broadcasting station WEHS has been purchased by Victor C. Carlson of the Victor C. Carlson Organization and it is now located in the tower of the Orrington hotel.

With its acquisition, Evanston takes its place with large cities throughout the country in the field of broadcasting. A fully equipped and well-furnished studio, one of the most attractive in the Middle West, has been provided, and it is Mr. Carlson's intention to give radio listeners excellent entertainment.

Station WEHS is licensed to operate on a wave length of 215.7 meters and will be on the air daily except Sunday, between the hours of 6 and 9 p. m.; from 10 p. m. to midnight, Wednesdays, Saturdays and Sundays; from 10 p. m. to 1 a. m., Fridays, and between midnight and 2 a. m. Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Daily, except Sundays, the latest news and sporting events will be broadcast between 6 and 6:15 p. m. A nightly feature will be the broadcasting of the Orrington Roof Garden orchestra under the direction of "Duke" Bigelow, playing now at the roof garden. Numerous special features will be added from time to time. The programs will consist of both classical and popular music, popular lectures and educational features.

Joe Allabough, well known radio announcer, will be the studio director and will have charge of the arrangement of the programs. Russell Cline, who assisted with the building of the station, is the radio engineer and will have charge of the mechanical end of the station.

Walter D. Launder Dies at Kenilworth Residence

Walter D. Launder, at one time a Kenilworth Village official and a member of the law firm of Schuyler, Ettleson and Weinfeld of Chicago, passed away suddenly last Tuesday of heart trouble. Funeral services are to be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the home at 230 Oxford road. Burial will be in Oakwoods.

Mr. Launder had been a resident of Kenilworth for a number of years and was at one time active in the administration of village affairs. He was also formerly connected with the governor's office and the state legislature of the state. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Anna H. Launder.

TO SAIL FOR EUROPE

Miss Catherine Lay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lay of Edgewood lane, leaves August 1 for Europe, where she will remain four months. Miss Lay sails August 3 from Quebec on the Empress Australia. She will join the Dudley Crafts Watson art class in London and remain with it for a week, painting in London and the surrounding country. In Switzerland Miss Lay will spend a week as the guest of Miss Marion Carswell in Geneva. Miss Carswell is a former member of the faculty of the Winnetka school who will teach in the Geneva school this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Prouty and their family of 693 Willow road returned this week from a two weeks' motor trip to Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Reid of 561 Cherry street left last week to visit Mr. Reid's old home in London, Canada.

The Summer Schedule

Calls for more accomplishment, and BETTER STYLE in the ways of thinking and doing. Naturally, the spirit of Summer is reflected in smartness of apparel.

Now is the last call to fill summer requirements. Our present stock comprises finished selections for summer—AT FINAL PRICE REDUCTIONS — Charming frocks as low as $9.50.

LEWIS
INCORPORATED
C.S. Breckenridge, Pres.

1606 CHICAGO AVENUE at DAVIS STREET
EVANSTON