Studies in Milan

Miss Phyllis Eileene Barry, cellist of Evanston, formerly of Glencoe, sails August 4 accompanied by her mother on the "Conte Biancamano" for Italy to continue her study in Milan. Miss Barry has just returned from New York, where she studied with Felix Salmond, famous English cellist, at the David Mannes school. Mrs. Barry and her daughter will remain in Europe indefinitely.

Erects Georgian Home in Glencoe for Fall Market

R. E. Crosby, builder, of 566 Center street, Winnetka, is completing for the fall market a very attractive Georgian colonial residence at 246 Franklin road, in one of the choice residential sections of northeast Glencoe. Red brick is used in the construction. The lot, ideal for this development, is 63 by 210 feet and is surrounded by numerous high grade houses in keeping with the type of residence which Mr. Crosby is building. Special decorative features are announced for the interior finish. The first floor will be done in parchment color, antique finish with the porches the same except in a green shade. One of the bath rooms will be finished in black and white and the other, off the hall, will be done in a marble finish. The inside shelves of the kitchen case will be green, blending with the tiled floor linoleum of that shade. An arched ceiling features the breakfast room, while arched book cases and arches elsewhere throughout the house add to its attractive interior design. This house, Mr. Crosby announces, is to go on the market at $35,000.

Carl Keith and his daughter, Miss Margaret Keith, of 310 Warwick road, Kenilworth, left Saturday to spend a week at the Keith summer home at Big lake, Wis.
