

Westmoreland Scene of Rising-Durham Wedding Saturday

Summer flowers in variety and gowns in pastel shades formed the colorful background last Saturday evening for the wedding of Miss Frances Rising, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip A. Rising of Evanston, and Arthur B. Durham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Durham of Kenilworth, at the Westmoreland Country club. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. S. C. Clarke. Tall baskets of the season's flowers bordered the long aisle running the length of the room to the improvised altar.

The bride wore a white satin and lace gown fashioned in period style. The lace in her long tulle veil which was held in place with orange blossoms was an heirloom of Mrs. Rising's, and the plaited cap fitted the head closely. The bridal bouquet was of lilies of the valley and roses.

The matron-of-honor, Mrs. Franklin B. Albright, who is a sister of the bride, wore a period style dress of orchid colored taffeta, and the bridesmaids, Miss Emilie Durham, sister of the groom, and Miss Iska Morgan, wore gowns of the same style in peach and green taffeta. The little twin flower girls, Frances and Marian Beeler of Winnetka, were dressed in pink organdy. The mothers of the bride and of the groom both wore gowns of georgette crepe, that of Mrs.

Rising being lavender and Mrs. Durham's green.

Franklin S. Albright attended Mr. Durham as best man, and the ushers were Walter Mead of Wisconsin Rapids, brother-in-law of the groom, and Gerald Cope of Champaign.

Mr. and Mrs. Durham left soon after the ceremony for a lake trip around Lake Michigan, and will be at home after August 3 at 7517 Kingston avenue, Chicago.

Mrs. Virginia Noe, and her daughter, Miss Virginia, returned this week from New York, where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel E. Noe for two weeks.

Miss Frances E. Weld of 315 Sunset road is spending the summer as the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Koblegard, at Walloon lake, Mich.
