STATE TENNIS TITLE

Kansas City Youth and National Boys Champion Wins Handily
in Skokie Play

The first championship of the Illinois state tennis title play to be decided on the Skokie courts, saw the victory of a Kansas City player, Junior Coen of the Missouri city, who is the national boy's champion and who was the favorite in the competition just ended. Coen annexed the title, by defeating Walter Thomas of Elmora, N. J., in the finals for the Junior title by scores of 6-3, 2-6, 6-1, 6-3.

In the semifinals Thomas downed the Chicago hope, Scott Rexinger, 6-2, 6-3. Coen won out over Richard Lusch of Los Angeles, 6-2, 6-1, in the semifinal match.

Junior's was a swift, decisive ascent to the throne. He played a brilliant game throughout, outstanding and outplaying his opponents in almost every skirmish. With the exception of his second set, in which he went to pieces momentarily, he was too much for Thomas.

Tilden Forges Ahead

The state championships attracted a field of stars including the famous Big Bill Tilden. In the play in the major event which began on Monday Tilden and other stars managed to do the expected by forging to the front at midweek. On opening day Tilden who won the title two years ago but who didn't play last year won two matches defeating two youthful Chicagoans. His victims were Gordon Braudt, 6-0, 6-1, and Scott Rexinger, 6-1, 6-0. Tilden kept a jump ahead of the others on Tuesday by defeating Jack Harris, 6-2, 6-0.

To relieve the monotony of one sided matches the fans saw the fall of Walter Hayes, the Chicago veteran, in the first round. Leroy Weir of Evanston beat Hayes, 1-6, 6-2, 7-5. Other first round winners were Clarence Griffin and Wray Brown.

A pair of premier eastern and western tennis representatives in the men's singles division fought their way into the semifinal bracket.

Brown and Chapin Win

Wray Brown of St. Louis, and ranking tenth last year in the national list, defeated Luke Williams of Chicago after a hard three-set match, 6-2, 1-6, 8-6, and A. H. Chapin Jr. of Hyannis, Mass., defending champion, took Peck Griffin of San Francisco into camp by a 6-3, 6-4 count.

Mrs. Chapin, women's champion has been finding the going smooth and advanced to the quarter-final bracket. Marion Leighton of Chicago, defaulted to Mrs. Hale Holden, Jr., on Thursday.

Scott Avenue Property
Changes Hands This Week

The Crosby and McKendry Realty company, 566 Center street, Winnetka, has sold the 150 by 159 feet vacant, with south front, on Scott avenue, just east of Greenwood avenue, Glencoe, to Walter Vette. This company also reports the real estate market in general much more active than it was a short time ago, both in regard to the number of buyers for vacant and those who are looking for improved property for fall occupancy.
