During the month of August there will be no business meeting of the voting members of the congregation, nor will there be a meeting of the Ladies' Aid society. The next meeting of the voters is scheduled to be held on Tuesday evening, September 13. The next regular meeting of the Ladies' Aid and Mission society will be on Thursday afternoon, September 8. This change from the first to the second Thursday is made because many of the members will be away from home the week preceding Labor Day.

We recently read of a church that decided to institute no summer schedule of services at all, but to continue its regular services all the year round. St. John's has always done that, and is doing so today. The warm days have come, but that cannot mean that we must suspend services. You will be benefitted and you will be much more satisfied by attending the summer services regularly whether at home or on a vacation. St. John's invites you!

Ferrall, in Riverside, Cal., they returned to their home in Kenilworth.
