North Shore Crest Area Enjoys Share of Building Boom

North Shore Crest is one of the several sections of that part of Wilmette west of Ridge road where building activities have been quite pronounced during the past few weeks. Three new bungalows are under construction in North Shore Crest, and those interested in its development say that they hope to have a dozen of fifteen more erected there by the time snow flies.

This subdivision is on the north side of Lake avenue and a short distance west of Ridge road. It was subdivided a few years ago, but like many other sections in what was formerly known as Gross Point, its development in a building way was not pronounced until the coming of the underground improvements, since which time the area is proving one of the most attractive centers to the builder.

George H. Hass, of Chicago, is the builder in this section and Mr. Johnson, of Deerfield, has the contract for three new five-room stucco bungalows now under construction. Two of these are on Melvin avenue and one is on Yale avenue. The lots here are 50 by 135 feet.

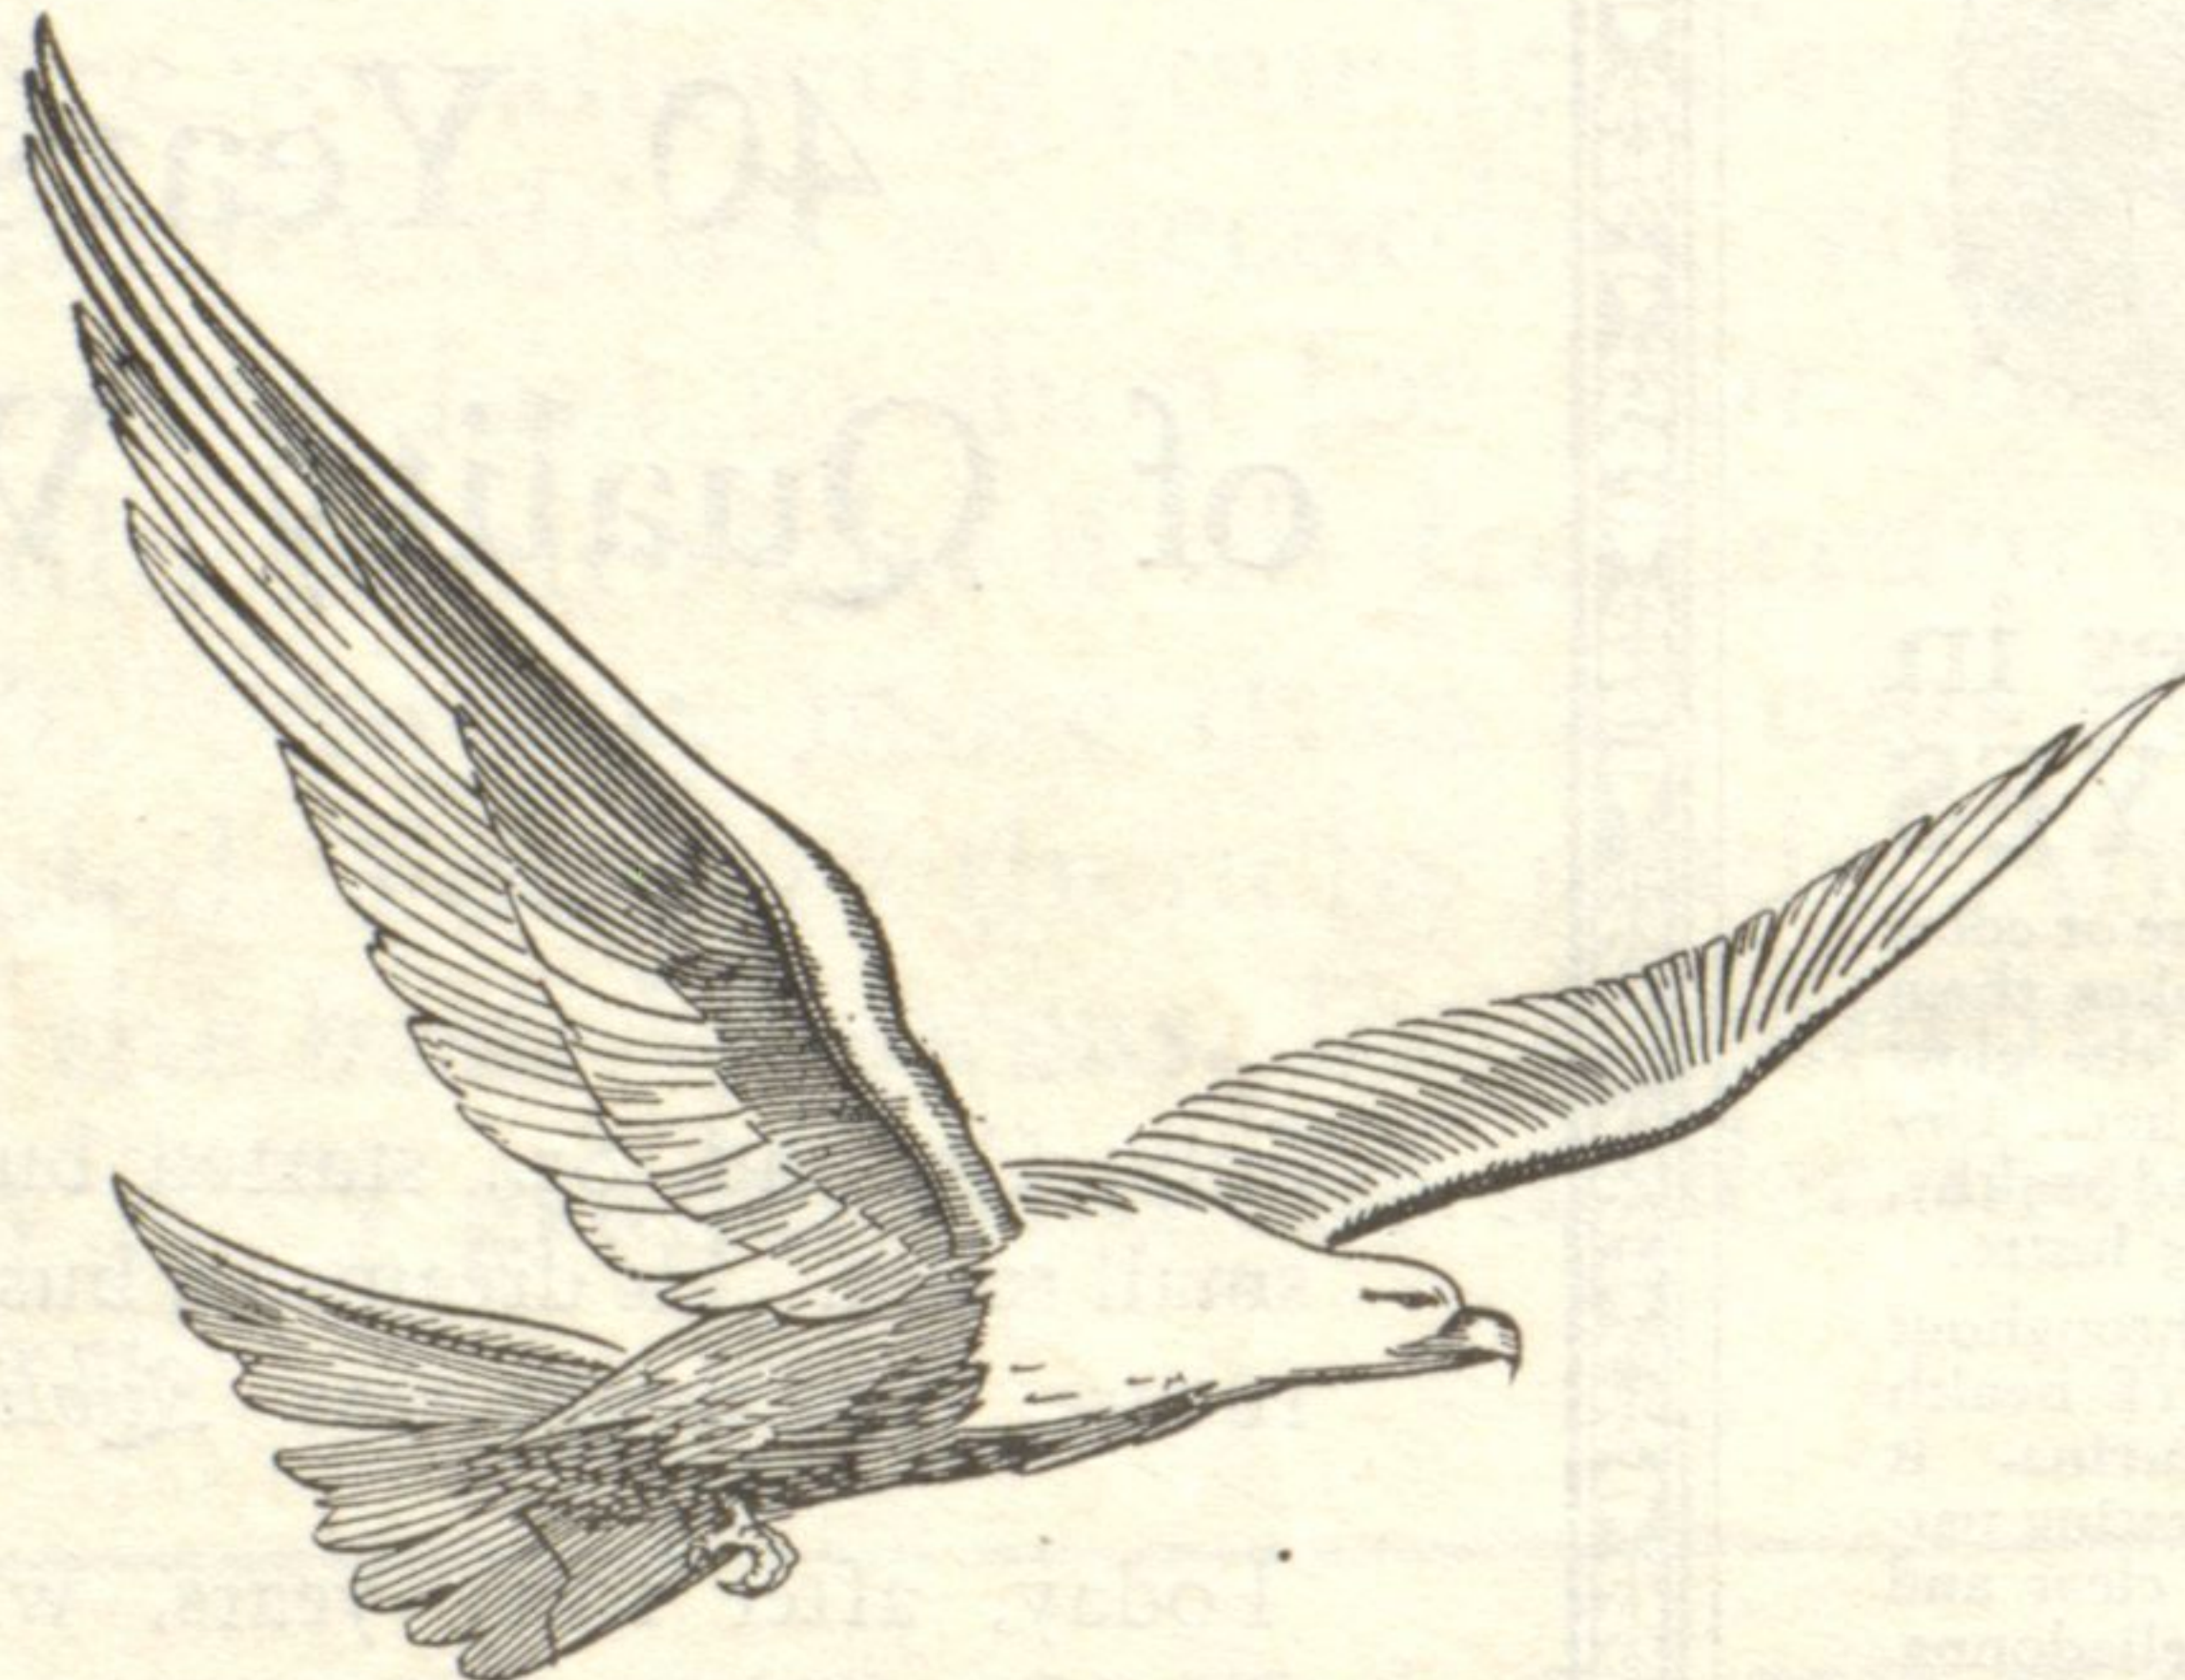

J. H. Schaefer and company, well known real estate firm with offices at 802 Ridge avenue, are exclusive agents for these new bungalows and also for the remainder of the unsold lots in North Shore Crest.

The firm announces that the three homes in question will probably be completed within ninety days and will sell for not to exceed $14,000.

North Shore Golf Stars Win in Geneva Tourney

North Shore stars added to their golfing honors in the invitation tournament at Lake Geneva on Saturday. Jack Westland of Sunset Ridge who is the Chicago district champion was the winner while Ira Couch of Glen View was the runner-up.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Anthony Humphreys of 722 Elm street left early in the week for a two weeks' auto trip through Ohio and Michigan. Mr. Humphreys' mother accompanied them as far as Oberlin, Ohio, where they will visit friends for a few days.
