

Monahan-Kuelzow Wedding Ceremony Held at Ravinia

Miss Ruth Monahan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Monahan of Ravinia, became the bride of Rockwood A. Kuelzow of Wilmette Wednesday afternoon in a ceremony performed in the home of her parents. The Rev. George P. Magill of the Presbyterian church of Wilmette read the service. Mr. Kuelzow is the son of Mr. and Mrs. August J. Kuelzow of 611 Greenleaf avenue, Wilmette.

White and pink formed the color scheme of the decorations for the service, with a touch of yellow provided by the gown of the bride's only attendant, her sister, Miss Katherine Monahan. The bride wore a simple wedding dress of white georgette, knife plaited, and Miss Monahan's gown was of yellow georgette simply fashioned. The bride carried a bridal bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley, and her sister carried yellow roses and lilies of the valley. Ballard Robinson of Wilmette attended Mr. Kuelzow as best man.

After the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Kuelzow left on a motor trip to Atlantic City. They will be at home after August 15 at 822 Topeka boulevard, Topeka, Kans.

Mrs. Kuelzow was guest of honor at several parties given previous to her marriage. Some time ago Mrs. A. J. Kuelzow entertained for her at a luncheon and theater party and Saturday evening Mrs. Kuelzow was hostess again for her at dinner in her home. Later on Saturday evening Mrs. William E. Shellman of 707 Washington avenue, assisted by her sisters, the Misses Dorothy and Maybelle Kuelzow, was hostess at a miscellaneous shower. A color scheme of pink and white was used.

Forever

Out of an intangible, bodiless idea they built the foundation of a great public service, those men who founded Northwestern University seventy-six years ago. From dream to stone—and now the life of their labors is measurable only by our civilization's mortality.

Dean Peter Lutkin dreamed a dream once, years ago, and now, each Spring, increasing numbers of music lovers crowd a flower-laden auditorium to hear one of America's finest Music Festivals.

In all humbleness we have inaugurated here a new institution on an ideal long a part of the life of Evanston and the North Shore: that Art, the need and the desire for Art, endures. What success we have here we will owe largely to the fine spirit of a community that has made a place for fine Art.
