shade of the large firs, which border the clubhouse. The locker room offers adequate accommodations and the finest of showers and lockers have been installed.

Mission Hills will have a limited membership. At present there are 241 members.

Jock Anderson is the club's professional. He is a tournament player and his greatest claim to golfing fame is the fact that for six years he held the open championship of South America. He has an assistant, too, Ray Espinosa who is a brother of Al and other golfing brothers of the Espinosa family.

So much for Mission Hills, the up and coming youth of North Shore golf.

Dog lovers will enjoy the kennel show at the Illinois State Fair, Aug. 20-27. All kinds of dogs will compete for prizes.

Women Will Vie With Rolling Pins at Picnic

A ladies' rolling-pin contest, balloon blowing and numerous other games will be features of the annual picnic of the Automobile club of Illinois to be held at Wayside Inn, Morton Grove, Sunday, August 7. Provisions have been made to accommodate 40,000 motorists and their families.

Everything will be free, including dancing, ice cream, cool drinks, games and favors for the kiddies. The largest prize list ever offered at any event of this kind, is promised by Si Mayer, president of the club.

A ball game is scheduled between prominent business men of the city and members of the club. A general invitation is extended to all motorists of Chicago and vicinity to attend the outing.

PRESENT THREE PLAYS

Three plays, "Poor Aubrey," "Finders-Keepers," and "The Flattering Word," were presented by the class in dramatics of the School of Speech, Northwestern university, at Annie May Swift hall Tuesday evening. This trio of plays, directed by Vance Morton, are by George Kelly, author of "Craig's Wife," and "The Show-Off." "Poor Aubrey," a domestic comedy, "Finders-Keepers," a psychological study of a woman's idiosyncrasies, and "The Flattering Word," a satire, were ably presented by the summer school students.

Illinois ranks third among the states in the manufacture of beverages. A total of 267 plants employ 2,535 persons; salaries and wages, $3,985,000; value of products, $14,175,000 yearly. First and second places go to New York and Pennsylvania respectively.

COMING BACK

We figure this way: The man who gets a better Used Car than he believed it possible to get, is coming back some day for a new Dodge Brothers Car.
