Wilmette Youth Wins Award for Car Model

Robert Fuchs, 13-year-old son of Mrs. E. D. Fuchs of 1043 Chestnut avenue, Wilmette, received word Tuesday that his automobile model had been awarded first place in Group I, Class A, of the Studebaker Sales company contest. The prize was awarded to the model most nearly resembling a Studebaker car. The model was constructed entirely by Robert himself. The district in which he was winner was that of Chicago and the outlying territory.

Robert is a student at New Trier High school and a patrol leader in Boy Scout troop No. 3.

The letter of award follows: "Dear Robert:

"We are pleased to inform you that your excellent model has been selected by the judges in this territory as the winner of first place in Group I, Class A. We are sorry to inform you, however, that we are unable to forward your model to the national sweepstakes as your model has been stolen from our salesroom.

(Signed)

The Studebaker Sales Company."

Mrs. Harry E. Pollard of 1437 Edgewood lane had as her guest last weekend Mrs. Earl Cassada of Grand Rapids, Mich.

Bridal Pair on Wedding Trip to Mackinac Island

Mr. and Mrs. Arhur Lips of 844 Spruce street announce the marriage of their daughter, Marjorie, to Roy Pavlik, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pavlik of Kenilworth. The marriage took place on August 3, with the Rev. John Williams performing the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Pavlik left immediately after the service for a boat trip to Mackinac Island, where they were to be guests at the Island house for ten days. They will live at present with Mr. Pavlik's parents until the completion of their new home in Kenilworth, where they will be at home to their friends after October 1.
