North Shore Men Take High Places in Archery Event

At the first tournament of the Midwest Archery association, held August 6 and 7 at Lincoln park, Chicago, the North Shore Archers were represented by J. R. Goetz, Dr. G. F. Eisenbrand, and Ralph Johansen. Fifty men competed and seven states were represented. Dr. Eisenbrand took the sixth prize and Mr. Goetz took twelfth.

The North Shore Archers club, recently formed in Winnetka, has become affiliated with the National Archery association. The club is still anxious to get new members, and all those interested are invited to attend the shooting, held every Sunday afternoon at 2:30, at the Indian Hill station park. For particulars, those interested are asked to call Dr. Eisenbrand at Wilmette 3052, or Mr. Goetz at Winnetka 2777. Members from all the north shore towns are solicited.

Mrs. d'Aix of Kenilworth entertained some friends at a luncheon and bridge at her home at 307 Melrose avenue last Thursday. Mr. d'Aix returned to Kenilworth last Monday after spending several weeks in New Mexico.

Mrs. Robert O. Berger of 306 Kenilworth avenue returned to her home last Tuesday after spending ten days visiting her daughter Eleanor at a camp on Sturgeon Bay. Eleanor recently paid a visit to Chambers island, where she camped last year.

Mrs. Frank Ely, 305 Kenilworth avenue, entertained seventeen friends at luncheon and bridge on Friday of last week in her home.
