Grilli-Emrich Wedding Solemnized on Saturday

At a quiet wedding attended only by members of the immediate families, Miss Emma Grilli, daughter of the Rev. Philip Grilli and Mrs. Grilli of Chicago, was married last Saturday to George L. Emrich, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Emrich of 614 South avenue, Glencoe, formerly of Wilmette. The service was read at 4 o'clock in the afternoon in the Emrich home by the Rev. Horace C. Case of the North Shore Methodist church. In the absence of the bride's father, who is in Europe, her brother, John Grilli, gave her away. Milton Emrich was his brother's best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Emrich are spending a honeymoon of two weeks in northern Wisconsin. Upon their return they will make their home at 815 Washington street, Evanston.

Winnetka Library

The following list of "Fifty Conspicuous Novels"—a selection from the best novels of the last twenty-five years, is posted in the Winnetka Public library, and has caused much interest and comment among the users of the library. This list represents the fictional output of many countries, includes the winners of the Nobel and other prizes, and offers a splendid opportunity to study the development of fiction during the last quarter century.

This list has been made for those who have the prospect of a summer vacation, or at least greater leisure, ahead of them. For those who have been engrossed too deeply in business or household duties during the past twenty-five years to follow the new fiction as it has appeared, here is an excellent chance to "catch up" with the century's novels of outstanding reputation.

Miss Jane Adair, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Adair of 320 Melrose avenue, entertained a group of her friends at the Skokie Country club on August 2, in honor of Miss Faustina Roberts of Boston, who has been visiting her at her home in Kenilworth.

We're Enlarging Our Bank

A GAIN Progress takes us forward a significant step. Work of adding some fifty per cent to our banking floor space is now nearing completion.

After October first we shall occupy several hundred additional square feet adjoining our present banking room. More tellers' cages will be installed. Better Safe Deposit facilities, including six coupon booths, are to be provided. Spacious Officer's quarters will add to the convenience of our patrons.

Our increased banking business has made this expansion an immediate necessity, both for the present and for the future.
