EASTERN STAR MEETS

There will be a regular meeting of the Winnetka chapter, No. 942, Order of the Eastern Star, on Monday evening, August 22, at the Masonic temple. As this is the first meeting after vacation, and there is important business to transact, it is requested that as many as can will attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Barnum of 735 Walden road and their family, have left for their summer camp, "Christmas Tree Cabin," at Land o' Lakes, Wis.

Elmer Adams Wins More Laurels as Barnyard Golfer

Elmer E. Adams, former Winnetka postmaster and horseshoe pitching champion of the village, drove 250 miles last week to win third place in the great barnyard golf events at the annual county fair at Ontario, Wis.

He was accompanied by Miss Marjorie Smith, of 879 Oak street, Winnetka. They went up to visit J. D. Robinson and family, former residents of Winnetka, Mr. Robinson now being in the hardware business there. He also owns and operates the only motion picture show in that village.

Mr. Adams claims he gave the winner in the horseshoe pitching match a close rub for first place, and ascribes his defeat to the fact that he is accustomed to pitching on a clay court, whereas the court at the fair grounds was an ordinary dusty, dirt court, somewhat of a handicap, in his case.

Give Bon Voyage Dinners for Dudley Bradstreets

A number of farewell dinners are being given for the Dudley Bradstreets of 772 Walden road and the Ryland Wolcotts of 932 Euclid avenue, who leave Winnetka this week-end for New York. They plan to sail next Saturday for two months in Europe. Thursday evening the Edwin P. Prices of 920 Hill road entertained twenty guests at dinner at their home in honor of the Bradstreets. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burrows of 271 Linden avenue will give a dinner tonight at the Vista del Lago club. They plan to have about fifty guests.
