

North Shore Society Settles into Its Mid-August Pace

Add Engagement, Wedding, Debut to Society News

An engagement announcement, the name of another Winnetka girl who is to be one of this season's debutantes, and word of a wedding are new events to add to society's calendar this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen A. Foster of 596 Maple avenue announce the engagement of their daughter, Rachel Almeda, to John Foster Manierre, son of Dr. and Mrs. John T. Manierre of 1401 Dearborn parkway, Chicago. The date for the wedding has not yet been set. Miss Foster made her debut in 1923 and was graduated from Bryn Mawr in 1925. Mr. Manierre was graduated from the University of Wisconsin and is now a student in the Northwestern University Law school.

Because of recent illness in the family, the wedding of Miss Jane Naugle and Billings McArthur, son of Dr. and Mrs. Lewis McArthur of Chicago, will be small and quiet. The ceremony will be read on Thursday afternoon, September 15, in the chapel of St. Chrysostom's church, at 4:30 o'clock. Little Joan McArthur, niece of Mr. McArthur, will be flower girl.

Miss Naugle, with her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Naugle, have been spending the summer in Winnetka. They expect to reopen their apartment at 199 Lake Shore drive, Chicago, the first of September.

Miss Elinor Dennehy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dennehy, is to make her bow to society at a ball at the Blackstone hotel given by her father and mother the evening of December 26. The Dennehy family has been occupying its summer home at 1231 Tower road, Hubbard Woods, this season.

North Shore Garden Club Holds Annual Flower Show

A different arrangement from that of former years, in the placing of the exhibits entered in the annual flower show of the North Shore Garden club, will be used for the affair this year. Mrs. Charles Stonehill, chairman of the flower show, is opening her home on Sheridan road, Glencoe, for the show, which is being held this Saturday from 2 to 7 o'clock and Sunday from 10 to 5 o'clock. The set tables and the flower arrangements will be shown in the large hall of Mrs. Stonehill's residence. Flower specimens will be in the garage, and the vegetables exhibited will be in the greenhouse. Refreshments will be served in Mrs. Stonehill's garden throughout the show, and cut flowers will be sold at any time during the hours when the show is being held. The baskets of flowers will be sold at the end of the affair. All the proceeds are to be used for the benefit of Sunset camp.

Tickets will admit the bearers not only to Mrs. Stonehill's garden and the display in her home, but also to the gardens of Milton Goodman, 1114 Sheridan road, Glencoe; Jesse Strauss, Sheridan road, Glencoe; Lawrence F. Stern, 981 Sheridan road, Glencoe; Julius Rosenwald, Roger Williams avenue, Highland Park; and Louis Kuppenheimer, Laurel avenue, Winnetka.

The exhibits will be divided into nine sections; asters, zinnias, gladioli, dahlias, miscellaneous cut flowers, potted plants, vegetables, arrangements of flowers for effect, and exhibits from other garden clubs.

The gardens of the L. B. Kuppenheimer home at 1130 Laurel avenue, Winnetka, will be open to the public Saturday afternoon, August 20, during the annual flower show given by the North Shore Garden club.

Glencoe Will Have Sale of Articles by Shut-Ins

Mrs. A. J. Balaban will open her home at 162 Euclid avenue, Glencoe, Friday, August 26, from 10 in the morning until 5 in the afternoon for a sale of articles made by shut-ins. Assisting the hostess will be Mrs. Leo Terierd, Mrs. Paul Ash, Mrs. Newton Weil, Mrs. Gus Roseman, Mrs. Sam Meyers, Mrs. Charles Burkhardt, Mrs. Joseph Kaplan and Mrs. A. Marshall. The society will be represented by Mrs. Eric Scudder, Mrs. James G. Condon, Mrs. Augustus J. White, Mrs. A. B. Marx, Mrs. W. H. Black of Glencoe, and Mrs. Charles B. Officer of Winnetka.

Besides the usual linens, quilted pillows, hooked rugs and baby things, the stock includes many suggestions for trousseau gifts for the early autumn brides, such as exquisite handkerchiefs, handkerchief cases, party bags, traveling cases and other things. The bridge hostess will find something different for prizes in the attractive utility boxes containing tiny spools of thread, matches, rubber bands and paper clips.

Most of the shut-ins are dependent upon the work of their hands for their livelihood. For many of them the only change of scenery they have is an occasional ride or trip to the park made possible through their own efforts. The sale of their articles enables them to help themselves.

Former Winnetka Girl Wed

The white satin and tulle wedding gown worn by her sister, the Countess Giangiullio Rucellai of Florence, Italy, was worn by Miss Lee Higginson when she became the bride of John H. P. Gould, son of Mrs. Elgin R. L. Gould of New York City Saturday afternoon, August 13. The bridal bouquet was of white orchids. Her only attendant, her sister, Countess Rucellai, was in pale yellow chiffon. She wore a large yellow hat and carried yellow roses and larkspur.

Only one hundred relatives and friends attended the church ceremony and reception, because of the ill health of the bride's mother.

The Higginsons, formerly of Winnetka, are now residents of Lenox, Mass., where the wedding took place.

St. Anne's church in Kennebunkport, Maine, is to provide the setting for the wedding of Miss Cora Virginia Howland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Carter Howland of Chicago, and Russel Horton Stafford of Glencoe. The marriage will take place at 4:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon, August 27. Mr. Stafford is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Stafford of 635 Longwood avenue, Glencoe. The Stafford family at one time resided in Wilmette.
