BAHAI LECTURES

The topic at the meeting in the studio of Louis Bourgeois, architect, 536 Sheridan road, Wilmette, Sunday, August 21, at 3 p.m., will be "The Abolition of War in Compliance with the Instruction Set Forth by Abdul-Baha in reply to the Invitation to Address the Hague." A study class is held Wednesdays at 8 p.m., in the home of Mr. C. P. Christensen, 1138 Oakwood avenue, Wilmette. The public is invited to these informal gatherings.

The first hanging in Illinois was held on September 3, 1821, and resulted from the conviction of the survivor in the state's only recorded duel, near Belleville.

FRIEND OF N. U. DIES

Funeral Service Thursday for E. H. Gary, Steel King and Benefactor of Northwestern

Judge Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the United States Steel corporation, one of the important benefactors of Northwestern university, died at his New York home Monday morning, aged 80 years.

His daughters, Mrs. Robert W. Campbell, 1733 Hinman avenue, Evanston, and Mrs. G. Gary Sutcliffe of Chicago, a granddaughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Campbell Clark (Mrs. Edward S. Clark), also of Evanston, and a grandson and great grandson, Elbert G. Sutcliffe and Elbert G. Sutcliffe II, both of Winnetka, survive him with his wife.

The body of the judge was brought to Wheaton for burial. Services were held Thursday at 10:30.

Judge Gary, one of the eminent men of the United States, was graduated from old Union College Law School which was later consolidated with the law school of Northwestern university. He has given the latter its valuable law library and its new law library building on McKinlock campus in Chicago. He has frequently visited the Evanston campus and was a member of the university's board of trustees.

Flower Guild Real Boon to Children in Tenement Areas

If the north shore householders who give of the wealth of their gardens for the work of the Chicago Plant, Flower and Fruit guild could have been present at the recent graduation exercises of the "House of Happiness," 3052 Gratten avenue, Chicago, they would have been satisfied.

This particular "House of Happiness"—for there are three of them "back of the yards"—graduated 120 boys and girls, twelve years of age and under from their summer school.

These children are learning many things that will help to make them good citizens and good fathers and mothers, but there are not many flowers in their lives as anyone knows who views the cramped conditions which are the living portions of thousands of Chicago folk not endowed with a deal of this world's wealth.

So, in order that a bit of natural bloom might accompany the spiritual and intellectual bloom on the graduates from this Settlement "House of Happiness," Miss Bertha L. Moore, in charge, telephoned the headquarters of the Chicago Plant, Flower and Fruit guild, asking if that organization could not furnish enough flowers for all the 120 boys and girls in the graduating class.

Happily on that day, the floral bounties from the gardens of the north shore were sufficient not only to care for the hospitals and homes of the poor which the guild brightens daily, but enough flowers were sent out to the House of Happiness to go around.

Were the children thrilled! A photograph of their reception of the flowers would tell a tear-compelling story.
