Many Coaches Attend N. U. School

Seventy-five coaches from all over the country are attending the Northwestern university summer coaching school. The above picture shows the football and basketball mentors grouped on the steps in front of Patten gymnasium. Coach Dick Hanley, who has been conducting the football course will debate with Coach Knute Rockne of Notre Dame tomorrow afternoon on the value of the shift. The school will come to a close Friday night.

Broaden Scope of Merit Badge Awards for Scouts

The Merit Badge program of Scouting, which brings a Boy Scout into closer touch with vocational opportunities of life is being broadened so that a limited number of badges will now be available to second class scouts. Heretofore only first class scouts were eligible to compete for Merit Badges. This new ruling makes the "high school of Scouting," the Merit Badge work, available to many more boys on the north shore and will mean that boys can get a "running start" on advancement more easily than before.

Harold Carleton Wenberg, who has been spending the summer with his parents at 1015 Spruce street, will leave Sunday for a trip including Iowa and South Dakota. Mr. Wenberg will then enter Yankton college, Yankton, S. D., as a senior.

Illinois exported merchandise valued at $44,603,947 during the first quarter of 1927.
