

North Shore Interest in Summer Benefits Continues

Benefits Popular as Social Affairs on August Calendar

BY JEAN TEN BROECK

Like the hills and ridges that break through the smoke-like mists covering an early evening countryside, occasional benefits of north shore interest pierce through the midsummer pall over our social life. This last week in August offers two affairs of different nature but with a purpose philanthropic.

Of these one is a large lawn fete to be given Saturday evening, August 27, in the charming garden of the Edgar Foster Alden home at 352 Linden street, Winnetka, under the auspices of the garden committee of the Illinois Women's Athletic club. Dancing to the strains of a six piece orchestra, fortune telling, tables for cards, and refreshments will be attractive features of the garden party.

Mrs. Alden, who is chairman of the garden committee, is assisted in making arrangements by several north shore women, Mrs. Leonard Roach, Mrs. Charles Bradley, and Mrs. George Karnes of Winnetka, Mrs. F. G. Kane of Kenilworth, and Mrs. A. H. F. Ullrick of Glencoe, as well as by Mrs. Oscar Hebel, Mrs. Arthur Fifield, Mrs. C. M. Dube, Mrs. E. S. Stross, Mrs. H. O. Coulson, Mrs. F. E. Peck, Mrs. Charles Trosk, Mrs. R. F. Elmer, Mrs. H. L. Harmount, Mrs. Louis Deeter, Mrs. Fred Green, Mrs. Walter Hughes, and Mrs. Harper Hibbe, all of Chicago.

The second benefit is an afternoon bridge to be given next Wednesday by the ex-service committee of the Woman's Library club of Glencoe for the veterans at the Great Lakes hospitals. The party will take place at 205 Franklin road, Glencoe, the home of Mrs. Ivor Jeffreys, president of the Library club. Mrs. Finnegan, who is in charge of the Red Cross work at Hospital 105, will be a guest and will explain the work which is being done under her supervision.

Mrs. Norman H. Camp is general chairman of the committee and Miss Helen Martin heads the ticket committee for the bridge. Both Mrs. Camp and Miss Martin are residents of Glencoe.

The bride will wear the white satin dress and tulle veil worn by her sister, Cornelia, at her wedding last year to C. M. Larsen of Peoria. The attendants, Miss Alice Shipman, daughter of the George Shipmans of 432 Warwick road, and Miss Katherine Stolp, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Rufus Stolp of 336 Warwick road, will be gowned in blue chiffon.

Dinner Dance Nights Are in Favor at Shore Club

Dinner dance nights at Club Vista del Lago, which are Wednesdays and Saturdays, have proved a most delightful innovation for north shore society. The colorful club setting with its open air dancing opportunity presents a unique rendezvous and one that is growing fast in popularity.

Last Saturday witnessed a big assemblage of members and friends and included many large individual parties. Numbered among these was a party of fifty given by Mrs. Robert Burrows of Winnetka, as a farewell dinner to friends departing for a European trip, Mr. and Mrs. E. Dudley Bradstreet and Mr. and Mrs. Ryland Wolcott of Winnetka.

Other large parties included those of Mrs. B. W. Lynch of Wilmette, who was hostess to twenty; Mrs. William M. Hoyt of Winnetka, who had a table of twelve; and Mrs. Richard Wolfe of Kenilworth, Mrs. Gordon A. Ramsay of Glencoe, Mrs. William O. Coleman of Winnetka, Mrs. John R. Marshall of Evanston, Mrs. George M. Coale of Kenilworth, Mrs. Henry N. Cooper, Jr., of Winnetka, and Mrs. M. H. Hurd of Wilmette, who also had tables for parties of twelve.

Large Attendance Makes Success of Garden Club Show

Bright sunshine, a wise choice of seasons, when the late summer flowers were at the height of their perfection, and an enthusiastic crowd made a tremendous success of the flower show held Saturday and Sunday by the North Shore Garden club. Mrs. Charles Stonehill opened her home and gardens for the show, and a number of other north shore gardens were open on those two days. About eight hundred persons attended the show, making for its financial success. The finances were aided also by the money realized by the sale of the flowers exhibited. After having been sold, these flowers were turned back to the committee, to be distributed to hospitals. The vegetables were sent to Sunset camp, the camp for which the show was given.

Mrs. Julius Rosenwald of Highland Park was prominent among the prize winners. She carried off ribbons for her lilies, potted plants and luncheon table arrangement. Mrs. Morris Wolff, also of Highland Park, won prizes for the lilies and potted plant she exhibited. Mrs. Louis Epstein showed prize snapdragons, and Mrs. George Pick of Highland Park had the prize vegetables. The dinner table arrangements of Mrs. M. Straus of Highland Park and Mrs. J. Harry Selz, Glencoe, won prizes, and Mrs. Herman Black's informal dinner table won first prize in its class. Mrs. Harold Florsheim of Highland Park won a prize with her luncheon table exhibit. In the exhibition of dahlias and asters, S. A. Glaser, Louis Kuppenheimer of Winnetka, and Mrs. A. G. Becker of Highland Park were awarded ribbons. Richard Churchill of Highland Park and Mrs. Ben Stein of Glencoe won ribbons for their dahlias. The prize for the best floral set piece for a large living room was given to Sam Marx of Glencoe. Among the outside garden clubs which had exhibitions, Glencoe Garden club won first place, Kenilworth Garden club, second, and the Lake Forest club, third.
