Milan Lusk Begins Fall Teaching Term

Milan Lusk, violinist, has been appearing this summer on the Artist courses of a number of prominent State Teachers' colleges in the West, as well as at the University of Oklahoma. He is now arranging his Fall teaching schedule at his residence studio, 810 Michigan avenue, Wilmette, and will accept a limited number of earnest violin pupils for instruction.

Mr. Lusk, who was appointed several years ago as a special assistant to the famous master, Prof. Otakar Sevcik, while the latter was in Chicago, is an exponent of the Sevcik method which is today acknowledged the most scientific and up-to-date system of pedagogy, it is explained.

Illinois had 107,326 more automobile registrations in 1926 than in 1925, an increase of 8.5 per cent. The number of automobiles in Illinois has more than doubled in the last five years.

Rail Employees Frolic at Picnic in Highland Park

Employees of the Chicago North Shore & Milwaukee railroad held their first annual picnic Wednesday of this week at Sunset park, Highland Park. It was an "old-fashioned" basket picnic, and officials of the railroad mingled with employes in spreading their lunches under the trees.

An extensive program of entertainment and sporting events was carried out. Starting at 9 o'clock in the morning with a concert by the North Shore Line band, the program extended throughout the day and until late in the evening. Addresses were made by B. J. Fallon, vice-president in charge of operation, and John F. Egolf, general manager.

ANNOUNCES MARRIAGE

Mrs. Leroy A. Rand announces the marriage of her daughter, Beatrice, to Clarence Paul Carlson, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Carlson of Evanston, on Saturday evening, August 13. Mr. and Mrs. Carlson will be at home to their friends at 1401 Grey avenue, Evanston, after September 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Kloefer of 325 Linden street have been entertaining their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Belmont, and their son, of Austin, Texas, for a few days. The Belmonts left Winnetka Thursday.

Wilbur Nesbit Dies Following Heart Collapse

Wilbur Dick Nesbit, Evanston poet, prose writer and lecturer, vice president of William H. Rankin & Co. advertising, died suddenly of heart failure following a collapse late Saturday afternoon at Wabash avenue and Madison street, Chicago.

Death came half an hour later at the Iroquois hospital to where his son Robert was summoned and reached his side before his passing. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon from the Oriental Consistory, Chicago, followed by burial at Acacia cemetery.

Mr. Nesbit was 55 years old. He had lived for 24 years in Evanston and resided at 554 Sheridan square. He is survived by his wife, Mary Lee Nesbit, and three sons, Richard of Montana, Robert of Chicago, and Wilbur D. of Evanston. He was born in Xenia, Ohio, September 16, 1871.

Mr. Nesbit's work in writing began in a small Indiana town from where he went to New York. Later he came to Chicago where he conducted a column on the old Inter-Ocean. He was later a writer and columnist on the Baltimore American, the Chicago Tribune and the Chicago Evening Post.

During the World war he was in charge of the Liberty Loan drives in the middle west, and at that time the poem by which he is best known, "Your Flag and My Flag," became widely known. He has published a great deal of newspaper, magazine and book verse and has been in demand as a lecturer and toast master. He was president of the Indiana Society of Chicago and the Forty club, a member of the Cliff Dwellers, the Arts and White Paper clubs of Chicago, the University club of Evanston and the Columbia club of Indianapolis.

Ravinia Calls Neighbors to Annual Street Dance

With Harvey's orchestra playing the Grand March, the annual Ravinia carnival and street dance will begin at 9 o'clock Saturday evening, August 27.

This occasion is one having much interest for people of Ravinia and all along the north shore. It is a costume affair and every resident of the north shore is invited to participate. Awards will be given for the most beautiful costume, the most original costume and the funniest costume.

Mildred Haessler is to present a group of solo dances.

Between 7 and 9 o'clock there will be a grand march and dancing exclusively for the children with special prize awards for costumes.

Tickets will be sold at the grounds.

Lucky Seven Dance Club to Begin Season Aug. 27

The Lucky Seven Dancing club announces the opening of its second season of activity on the north shore Saturday, August 27, giving dances every Saturday night over a period of thirty-six weeks. September 10 is to be the Grand Opening Nite of the season.

Dances of the Lucky Seven club are held in the Odd Fellows temple at 1569 Maple avenue, just south of Davis street, Evanston. They are held under the supervision of Richard A. Geuss and William Abel. The Commadors, a well known north shore orchestra, provides the music.
