Four States Represented in This Auto Collision

Four states were represented in an automobile accident which occurred on Sheridan road in Winnetka last Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Miss Mary B. Haigh, of Madison, Wis., while at the wheel of a car owned by F. J. Slackford, of Sandusky, Ohio, who accompanied her, fainted. The machine crashed into an approaching car owned and driven by C. S. McDowell, of Davenport, Iowa, and Sergeant Harry C. Enault, of the police department of Winnetka, Illinois was the officer on the scene. Miss Haigh's nose was broken and both cars were considerably damaged.

Meet to Check Progress in Mosquito Campaign

Continuing the preliminaries of the war on mosquitoes, the North Shore Mosquito Abatement district held its fourth meeting this week in the Village hall in Glencoe.

Concerning the petitions which are now being circulated before an election can be called in the district, it is stated. Mr. Hahn stated that many have shown their interest in the work, and are signing the petitions. Petition blanks were put into circulation through representatives of the various sections of the district at a meeting in Glencoe last week.

Alexander M. Lovedale, Kenilworth Trustee, Ill

The condition of Alexander M. Lovedale, of 42 Kenilworth avenue, Kenilworth, who has been seriously ill for the past three weeks, was reported somewhat improved Thursday. His condition Wednesday was critical, and it was feared the end was near, the family now has hopes of his recovery. Mr. Lovedale is a Kenilworth Village trustee.

Business Education

Business life particularly demands trained service and ability to work with a minimum of supervision.

Stenography, Bookkeeping, Secretarial Training—all the commercial branches contribute to the training required in commercial life. They are the foundation of things upon which business is built.

If for any reason you can not go to High School, or cannot complete your course, then a Business Education is almost a necessity.
